WELCOME TO THE 2021 COPENHAGEN FELLOWSHIP
Civil Society, Civil Responsibility

Since our founding in 1997, Humanity in Action has worked to instill the values of human dignity and moral responsibility for the protection of the rights of minorities in a new generation of social, cultural and political leaders. Inspired by the rescue of the Danish Jews in 1943, Humanity in Action Denmark and the Copenhagen Fellowship represent the very foundation of this work. Since our founding we have educated, inspired and connected more than 2500 young people worldwide.

The Copenhagen Fellowship proudly works to continue this tradition. Yet, over the past 24 years, we have also sought to expand upon our foundations. As new challenges face our democratic societies, so the program develops and redefines itself. Today, the Copenhagen Fellowship explores not only the roots of its own history, but also contemporary human rights issues and concerns affecting minoritised groups. Pedagogically, the Copenhagen Fellowship strives to be a testing ground for new thinking driven by the Fellow dialogue, discussions and disagreements. Through a highly interdisciplinary program, the Fellowship seeks to engage its Fellows in current democratic challenges and inspire them to action - now and in the future.

We would like to express our gratitude to our donors. The Humanity in Action Fellowship in Copenhagen is only possible because of our supporters, who have continually believed in the idea of Humanity in Action. We are deeply thankful to Knud Højgaards Fond, Aage og Johanne Louis-Hansens Fond, Hermod Lannungs Fond, Hoffmann & Husmans Fond, Wistifonden, Politiken-Fonden, Slots- og Kulturstyrelsen, Asta og Jul. P Justensen Fond, Columbus-fonden, Tuborgfondet, Møllmanns Legatfond, and Plums Fond for Fred, Økologi og Bæredygtighed for supporting the program, several of these foundations through many years.

We would further like to sincerely thank our host families who - once again - open their homes to many of our Fellows.

At a time of great tension in local, national and international realms - still in the midst of a global pandemic, democracies under pressure and Human Rights threats around the globe - we are proud to welcome yet another cohort - 24 engaged Fellows - and to continue our support to pluralistic voices working towards advancing social justice in Denmark and abroad.

INTRODUCTION TO OUR THEME:
Ríkisfelagsskapurin og mannarættindi
Naalagaaffeqatigiinneq inuttut isinnaatitaaffiillu

For the second year out of three, the Copenhagen Fellowship will delve into the complex issues of Rigsfællesskabet - the Unity of the Realm - through the lens of Human Rights.

In Denmark, the Unity of the Realm refers to the relationship between Denmark, the Faroe Islands and Greenland, collectively known as The Danish Realm. Since 1380 the Faroe Islands have been under the Crown of Denmark, and Greenland likewise since the Danish-Norwegian priest Hans Egede set food on Greenlandic shores in 1721 - 300 years ago.

Since then, the relationship between Denmark, Greenland and the Faroe Islands has been changing rapidly. Climate change, the increasing focus on Denmark’s colonial past, and a growing political independence are shaping new possibilities for the future of these three countries.

These developments, not to mention the increasing focus on the Arctic region by the world’s super powers, create an urgent need for enlightened and democratic conversations. Conversations on how to keep the development in the region sustainable, peaceful, and with respect for Human Rights and the rights of the individual.

Yet, many people in Denmark, let alone abroad, know little to nothing about this social and political union and its implications for the people living within it - and for the world.

The 2021 Copenhagen Fellowship will examine the union's long and complex history from a Human Rights perspective, and the relationship between the majority in Denmark and the country's minorities across the North Atlantic, as well as the union's place in a globalized world. Thus, the Fellowship deals with the changing nature of globalization, modernity, identity, and democracy. Our aim with this theme is thus to ensure that more people can take part in - and shape - the urgent conversation on the future of the Unity of the Realm and the Arctic region in respect of democratic values and Human Rights.

"The facts presented were staggering, the stories told were incredibly touching, and together this provided us with valuable insights into the complex history and relationship between Denmark, the Faroe Islands and Greenland." Malthe Gronert, 2020 Cph Fellow.
PRACTICAL INFORMATION
Getting Ready for the Fellowship
EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW from lunch and locations to program components and covid

We are excited to see you soon and to begin this year’s in-real-life Fellowship! Below you will find important details that you should take note of before August 9, when the Fellowship begins, including the list of readings that we will ask you to prepare in advance.

The in-person program will be run by the Humanity in Action Denmark staff consisting of Mikaela v. Freiesleben, National Director, Benedikte Møllegarad Raft, Program Coordinator, Catalina Catana and Anna Maryam Smith, Program Assistants. The four of us will be present throughout the program and will always be available to assist you with anything relating to the program. You can find our contact details at the end of this booklet. We’re looking forward to getting to know all of you better!

GOING TO THE FAROE ISLANDS

The Copenhagen Fellowship will - for the first time in the history of Humanity in Action Denmark - include a study trip to the Faroe Islands. The purpose of this trip is to ensure representation of local perspectives and voices, as well as ensuring that the debates about the Faroe Islands are locally anchored. On the trip we will meet and engage with a group of socially engaged Faroese youth on a two-day seminar, organized by Humanity in Action.

The program - and practical information - for the 6 day visit to the Faroe Islands can be found in a separate booklet. However, you can see an overview of the program in this booklet on page 52.

LOCATIONS DURING THE COPENHAGEN FELLOWSHIP

The Copenhagen Fellowship will take place in several different locations in Copenhagen (see list with addresses at the back of this booklet).

Importantly, Fellows and staff must respect the spaces that we have been invited into. We expect you will keep them in good shape and order and be mindful of other activities that might take place in these locations while we are there.

We are all in this space together. It is therefore important that we keep the places clean and tidy, which also means that we have to tidy up after ourselves and store tables and chairs away at the end of the day.
Karens Minde Kulturhus

Karens Minde Kulturhus (Karen's Memorial Culture House) is our main venue for the Fellowship, and the place where we will be spending most of our days. Originally an asylum, the house now serves as a multipurpose space, often rented out as a venue for various events.

Karens Minde is located in Sydhavnen (South Harbour), a district in southern Copenhagen. Sydhavnen is largely a former working class district and a less trodden path in Copenhagen, but has lately seen an architectural boom and now also contains upscale residential areas along the harbour as well as parks and recreational areas.

Nordatlantens Brygge

The North Atlantic House is an art and cultural center situated in a 16th century warehouse. For more than 200 years Nordatlantens Brygge was the centre of shipping traffic between Denmark and the North Atlantic. These days, other ports serve the North Atlantic market, and the historic warehouse is now a thriving cultural centre, dedicated to the art and culture of Denmark's former North Atlantic colonies: Greenland, the Faroe Islands, and Iceland. In the house you will also find the Faroese and Greenlandic Representations, the Icelandic Embassy as well as the national tourist boards of these three countries.

Kalaallit Illuusaat

Kalaallit Illuusaat (the Greenlandic House) creates a bridge between Denmark and Greenland and is a meeting place for Danish Greenlanders and Greeland-curious people. The house organizes cultural activities and is located in the inner city of Copenhagen.
Johan Borups Højskole

Johan Borups Højskole is a folk high school located in the center of Copenhagen. Humanity in Action Denmark has through the years collaborated many times with Borups Højskole on various events and 2021 is no exception. Our two Open Events are thus a product of this fruitful cooperation, and will be located at the Højskole. We’re looking forward to yet again visit these beautiful surroundings.

GETTING TO/FROM EVERYTHING

It is your own responsibility to transport yourself to and from our various locations. Should you, however, have any issues with getting to the locations, you may always contact the staff.

LUNCH - THE CONCEPT OF YOYO

As announced, we will unfortunately not be able to provide lunch everyday during the program. However, we have managed to strike a good deal with the in house café at Karens Minde Kulturhus, thus we will provide lunch for you the first week of the Cph Fellowship! Courtesy of Humanity in Action Denmark :)

Week 2 and some days of week 3 you are on your own concerning lunch. You’re going yoyo!

These days you can either bring your own lunch or buy food in the café. We have a small kitchen and refrigerator available. Or feel free to ask us for recommendations!

To see which days are yoyo-days, please refer to the day-by-day schedule below.

NORTH ATLANTIC RAINBOW DAYS

During our Fellowship we will take part in a couple of events under the North Atlantic Rainbow Days. These days are organized by Nordatlantens Brygge as part of the Copenhagen Pride Week, with HIA Denmark as a partner.

If you would like to attend more of their events, e.g. watch the Faroese film "Dreams By the Sea" (w/ English subtitles), you have to buy a ticket and sign up here: www.nordatlantens.dk
IMPORTANT PROGRAM COMPONENTS
what's on our schedule and why

CHECK-IN and CHECK-OUT

CHECK IN and CHECK OUT are important components of our everyday schedule which will manifest the beginning and the end of our day. They will usually take around 15 minutes. These are meant to be spaces of transition where we prepare ourselves to either begin or to end our day together. They might sometimes include exercises inspired by meditation or mindfulness, and they are also open for your suggestions on how to start and end our day in a meaningful way. It is also a space for asking short questions regarding the course of the day.

We expect you to be in time and be ready every morning for our check in.

GROUP VALUES

We are in this space together, we are learning together and discussing with one another, sometimes emotional topics close to our hearts. We'll begin this Fellowship by exploring our values and determining our group values together. E.g. How do we want to learn together in a respectful manner? What does respect mean to you? And what kind of behaviour supports respectful listening? See below for more thoughts on values.

GROUP DISCUSSIONS

We have set aside time for a group discussion on many days. We will invite you to take turns in leading these discussions. The aim is to provide you with a space to discuss the topics in greater depths beyond what the lectures leave time for. These discussions can also focus on topics you feel we have left out all together from the program or something that you are passionate about and want to explore with your fellow Fellows. This is the space for it. Sign up in the beginning of the program to lead a discussion.

SPEAKER PRESENTATIONS

We would like all of you to introduce a speaker each, before their lecture. Sign up for a speaker in the beginning of the program.
LECTURES

Each day we will have lectures focusing on different aspects of our theme. The lectures will vary in length and style because the lecturers vary. Some will be more workshop oriented, others will be discussion oriented, but many will also be in form of classical lectures. We have encouraged all of our lecturers to leave good time for Q&A, but in our experience, there is never enough time, hence we have created space for group discussions.

BREATHING SPACE

On the first day of our Fellowship we will introduce and guide you through a short meditation. We call the meditation Breathing Space. This is a simple meditation that restitutes the brain and the body, which can be useful and soothing during the day or after a long day. The meditation can also help increase focus, concentration, and presence. We will offer this meditation daily for those who find it soothing and helpful.

The breathing space will take place every day - when possible - for the last 10 minutes of the lunch break.

OPEN EVENTS

Some of our events during the Fellowship will be open to the public and friends of Humanity in Action. Please feel free to invite family and friends to these events. Friends and family can sign up to these events in a special form which will be send out separately.

ACTION PROJECT WORKSHOP

The Action Project Workshops will help you develop, plan and execute your Action Project. We have 2 workshops of 2-2½ hours to inspire you to go from Passion to Action. At our Senior Fellow ACTION DAY on September 11, all 2021 Fellows will pitch their Action Project idea for the audience. We will provide you with a more detailed description of what an Action Project is or can be, and how to pitch your project at the Action Project Workshops. Please read more about Action Projects under the headline: "Turning Knowledge Into Action".

SENIOR FELLOW ACTION DAY

This day is a day by senior fellows for senior fellows - and you, the cohort of 2021. It is a full day organised by senior fellows for you to get to know them and for them to get to know you, rekindle old friendships, and strengthen the Humanity in Action network. We are inviting all Senior Fellows from the previous 24 years to come, hold workshops for one another and listen to lectures by one another. We will end the day with a dinner and See-You-Again-Soon Party!

Senior Fellow Action Day will take place on September 11, 2021 at Borups Højskole.

Sign up by September 1, here:

CREATING CONSTRUCTIVE DIALOGUE THROUGH COMMON VALUES
what does this mean to you?

GOOD AND CONSTRUCTIVE DIALOGUE

A good, open, and respectful dialogue is crucial for change and therefore crucial for Humanity in Action. Throughout the Fellowship we will work together to achieve good and constructive dialogues.

We communicate with each other all the time, therefore, how we communicate is central to the way we interact as human beings and how we function as a group. Together we will work to create the best possible foundation for good and constructive dialogue and communication - when we agree as well as when we disagree.

But what determines a "good" dialogue or a "good" conversation? A good dialogue and a good conversation can have many forms and we may interpret it in many different ways. Humanity in Action emphasizes an open and inclusive dialogue as an important value in regards to “good” communication.

But what is it to you? In collaboration you will define what good communication means to you, the 2021 Fellowship cohort, and you will create a foundation of common group values.

WHAT ARE VALUES

- Values can be said to be culturally determined perceptions of what is valuable and desirable, and what is not.
- Every human being lives their life on a basis of their own values which often have been determined in an early stage of life.
- Our day to day actions are influenced by our values, often without conscious awareness. These implicit values are shown through our interactions with others.

Values are more often than not implied and not necessarily mentioned explicitly, but show themselves through our opinions and actions. Without the explicit verbilisation, values are expressed through our communication and attitudes towards other people. This can be expressed in the way we begin and end a conversation, how we listen, how we respond, if we are attentive towards the other person, and finally what words we choose when we speak with each other.

Therefore it is important to be conscious of the words we use and the underlying values they express.

WHAT ARE VALUES TO YOU?

We are curious to know what values you would like to be present during the Fellowship in order to create open and constructive communication. Throughout the Fellowship, we will explore which values are especially important to you and how you would like them to be expressed in the way we communicate with each other.
COVID-19 REGULATIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS your effort - everyone's safety

GENERAL HIA GUIDELINES - PLEASE OBSERVE DURING OUR FELLOWSHIP FOR THE SAFETY OF EVERYONE

Arrive on August 9 with a fresh, negative COVID-19 test, PCR or antigen (even if you are fully vaccinated), and get tested regularly during the Fellowship, preferably once-twice a week.

Wash hands regularly and use hand sanitizer.

Wear a mask on public transportation, especially when standing.

Keep a safe distance, at least two meters, between you and others.

If you feel sick, stay at home and notify us immediately.

Limit contact with people outside of your circle.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY
For over twenty years, we have had the immense privilege of being able to facilitate our Fellowship every year in June. The past year and a half have challenged us in unprecedented ways (as they have everyone), and have pushed us to adapt our format to ensure the safety of everyone involved - which has always been our absolute top priority. Humanity in Action has, and continues to take, the Covid-19 pandemic very seriously. We are practicing all necessary safety precautions put forth by the Danish government to ensure the program's smooth execution and the safety of everyone involved, Fellows, staff, speakers and guests.

COVID PASSPORT AND TESTS
In order to eat in restaurants and be in other public indoor spaces (i.e. museums, movie theatres, etc.), you have to obtain a "corona passport", which consists of either a negative Covid-19 test (no older than 72 hours) or proof of vaccination shown in the Danish corona passport app. If you wish to get tested in Copenhagen, you can do so at any of the free testing centres around the city. If you are not a Danish citizen or resident you must register on www.ssi.dk/covidresults-guidance to get tested and access your results. Please let us know if you have any questions about this process.

LIMIT contact with people outside of your circle.

#HIA2021 | 17 | Humanity in Action
CODE OF CONDUCT

Humanity in Action is committed to providing a respectful environment to all those involved in its programs. Fellows, Senior Fellows, Staff, Program Interns and Board Members in all participating countries (collectively, “Network Members”) are ambassadors of Humanity in Action and should demonstrate appropriate conduct in the programs and in public during the duration of Humanity in Action programs.

This Code of Conduct describes Humanity in Action’s expectations for the behavior of its Network Members throughout their participation in the Fellowship programs and all other network activities. The envisioned purpose of this Code of Conduct is to promote a constructive learning environment for all Network Members, particularly our Fellows. Guest speakers, volunteers, freelancers and trainers will also be informed about our network’s Code of Conduct.

The Code of Conduct is not intended to be comprehensive or to address all possible applications of, or exceptions to, Humanity in Action’s expectations, nor is it intended to in any way limit a Network Member’s rights to communicate with a government agency, as provided for, protected under or warranted by applicable law. In addition, we understand that different terms mean different things in different contexts, languages and countries. If you have any questions, please ask for clarification.

RESPECT FOR OTHER NETWORK MEMBERS, VOLUNTEERS, GUEST SPEAKERS, TRAINERS AND FREELANCERS

All Network Members approach each other with respect. The themes presented during Humanity in Action programs are challenging, often contested, highly complex and potentially sensitive. Network Members are expected to approach and engage in discussions with respect, maturity, honesty, and an openness to explore their own perspectives and those of others in ways that are constructive for each individual and the group.

RESPECT FOR GUEST SPEAKERS AND TRAINERS

Network Members approach guest speakers and trainers with respect and with a desire to learn - even from guest speakers with whom they strongly disagree. Humanity in Action does not assume that Network Members will agree with all the viewpoints presented by all guest speakers. Humanity in Action encourages Network Members to communicate their disagreements in a respectful and constructive manner.

Network Members may attend sessions during the programs that are sensitive in subject matter, confidential, or off-the-record. They agree to follow the requests of guest speakers and the Staff regarding confidentiality, attribution, recording/photography and social media.
RESPECT FOR HOSTS AND ACCOMMODATIONS

Network Members comport themselves in places of accommodation – whether hotels, hostels, homestays or other locations – with respect and comply with any associated rules or standards of conduct. Non-Network Members cannot stay overnight in any Humanity in Action-sponsored accommodations without pre-approval from Staff and, where applicable, homestay hosts. If placed in homestays, Network Members should be sensitive to their hosts’ expectations and show openness and eagerness to get to know the hosts and their families.

ACTIVE PARTICIPATION, ATTENDANCE AND TIMELINESS

Network Members are expected to be active participants and to attend each scheduled session at the designated times. Should a Network Member need to arrive late, the Network Member should contact Staff in advance. Staff may excuse absences on a case-by-case basis.

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

Humanity in Action believes in the value of diversity and is committed to actively creating an environment where each Network Member feels empowered to learn, grow, and maximize their personal contribution. Celebrating the similarities and differences that shape each of us is important and will help spread our mission. We promote an inclusive atmosphere and ensure that our Network Members are always treated with dignity and respect.

NO DISCRIMINATION AND/OR HARASSMENT AND MAINTAINING CULTURAL SENSITIVITY

Humanity in Action is committed to providing an environment where people are free from any form of harassment, discrimination, abuse, and retaliation. Network Members are prohibited from harassing or discriminating against anyone on the basis of racial identifiers or race, color, sex, religion, ethnicity, national origin, ancestry, citizenship, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, pregnancy, marital/familial status, military or veteran status, genetic information, cultural, social, political, economic differences and/or any other characteristic protected by applicable national, state or local law.

As such, Network Members are expected to be cognizant of, and sensitive to, differences in both historical and contemporary contexts.

Network Members are also expected to recognize that some of the beliefs and behaviors could pertain to these different contexts. Although misunderstandings may occur Network Members should always show respect and a willingness to understand and work through these differences both respectfully and constructively.

In addition, as noted above, sexual harassment will not be tolerated by Humanity in Action. For purposes of the Code of Conduct, sexual harassment includes harassment on the basis of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, and the status of being transgender. Sexual harassment is not accepted in Humanity in Action, whether it includes any unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal, physical or visual conduct of a sexual nature when any of the following occur:

- Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual’s employment or status in a program or activity;
- Submission to, or rejection of, such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for program decisions affecting that individual; or
- Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual’s participation in the network or of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive program environment even if the complaining individual is not the intended target of the sexual harassment.

A sexually harassing environment includes, but is not limited to, words, signs, jokes, pranks, intimidation or physical violence which are of a sexual nature or which are directed at an individual because of that individual’s sex. Sexual harassment may also consist of unwanted verbal or physical advances, sexually explicit derogatory statements or sexually discriminatory remarks. Sexual harassment can occur between any individuals, regardless of their sex or gender. A harasser can be any Network Member, guest speaker, trainers, volunteers, freelancers and/or other visitor.

National and Local Law

All Network Members must follow the laws governing the countries, states, municipalities, and cities where Humanity in Action activities take place and are susceptible to associated penalties for violations of those laws. If any matter is referred to the national authorities, it will be addressed in accordance with applicable law.

ADJUDICATION

If a potential violation of the Code of Conduct occurs, Humanity in Action asks Network Members to promptly inform a Program Director, Program Manager and/or Ombudsperson so Humanity in Action can promptly and thoroughly review and respond appropriately. When possible and appropriate, Humanity in Action will provide a warning of a breach of the Code of Conduct to Network Members and give them the opportunity to amend their behavior.

Humanity in Action will address issues on a case-by-case basis. Serious breaches of the Code of Conduct could lead Humanity in Action to dismiss immediately a Network Member from a program and/or the Network at the individual’s own expense.

AND: LAST BUT NOT LEAST: CREATING CONSTRUCTIVE DEBATE

We will be engaging in various debates and discussions throughout the fellowship, some of which might be more intensely debated than others. It is important that we focus on creating constructive conversation, with a focus on listening to others before responding. If you have any ideas for discussion topics during the fellowship, please contact one of the staff members and we will make sure it is included.
Meet our ombudsperson

ANNE KATRINE EBBESEN
2013 Senior Fellow, Head of Communications, Greater Copenhagen Fire Department

As in society at large, also in Humanity in Action’s educational programs, and in other ventures of the Humanity in Action community, situations that are in violation of the organization’s code of conduct can arise. Humanity in Action is committed to providing an open, respectful, and safe environment for its Fellows, Senior Fellows, Program Interns, Staff, Board Members, speakers, partners, and others involved in its programs. Anne Katrine Ebbesen is our Ombudsperson, our designated point of contact to serve members of the Humanity in Action network, including the Fellows of this program, who experience abusive, racist, sexist, homophobic, or other forms of discriminatory behavior that emanate from other members of the network.

Senior Fellow (2013) and Lantos Congressional Fellow (2014), Anne Katrine Ebbesen is an active Senior Fellow and ombudsperson of Humanity in Action Denmark. With a BA and MA in Rhetoric from the University of Copenhagen, specializing in minority studies, nationalism and campaign analysis, she is also trained in conflict resolution and inter-religious dialogue from programs in Lebanon, Armenia and Denmark. Anne Katrine has worked as a risk assessment officer on EU infrastructure projects for the department of transport, project manager of a migration policy project for The Danish National Church and is currently head of communications at the Greater Copenhagen Fire Department in their department of education, training and emergency preparedness.

BEYOND THE PROGRAM
A LIFE-LONG ENGAGEMENT
being a Humanity in Action Fellow

THE FELLOWSHIP JOURNEY

The Humanity in Action Fellowship may only last for a month, but an engagement in Humanity in Action lasts for much longer.

After the Fellowship part I and II - the virtual and in-person Fellowship - we will continue with part III, the Action Project Lab series in the fall/winter of 2021 and 2022. These workshops are created for you - to help you plan for your Action Project, and realize your visions for social change!

During and/or after the lab series it’s your time to develop your own personal Action Project!

The Humanity in Action Fellowship and your Action Project will be your entryway into a global network of people dedicated to promoting human rights, diversity and active citizenship around the world, and there are many ways to engage in this network. The fig. to the right shows each Fellow’s progression through Humanity in Action, starting with the Fellowship, the Action Project Lab series, the planning and execution of the Action Project, and the Senior Fellow opportunities available to you afterwards. See more about these opportunities on our website.

As a Humanity in Action Fellow, you must plan and implement an Action Project - a hands-on initiative inspired by your Fellowship experience. Action Projects give you the opportunity to take what you have learned during the Fellowship programs and use that knowledge to address real-life issues in your own communities. The projects reflect each Fellow’s unique experience and interests. Action Projects may take many different forms, including community service, public advocacy, art projects, lectures, conferences, and social entrepreneurship. Below you can find examples of Action Projects carried out by Copenhagen Fellows.

ANABEL SORIANO OLIVA

Originally from Spain, Anabel is about to finish her MSc in Global Refugees Studies at Aalborg University CPH. With a background in Philosophy, she has mainly focused on feminism and contemporary philosophy. Nowadays, Anabel is researching “Emptied Spain” and the imaginaries that inhabited it through different artistic expressions. Previously, she has participated in several artistic projects such as the co-creation of fanzines or an alternative radio program named ‘Filosofía y Ginebra’. Considering this, her ultimate goal is to approach different disciplines as vehicles to use social and philosophical theory for interrogating current socio-political issues.

the Safe Abortion Policy in collaboration with the District Health Office, where she contributed to increased access to health care services and reduced morbidity and mortality among women and girls. She has an interest in equality and equity issues in the health and well-being of people affected by contextual factors such as socio-economic, political, and cultural factors. In her leisure time, she reads and writes poetry, and watches movies. She is keen to meet new people and explore nature and different cultures so she often travels to different countries during her vacations.

WILLIAM NIELSEN

William Nordmark Nielsen is passionate about the world and all its diversity. This includes finding new ways to break down barriers, informing himself and others about the unknown. He believes in storytelling, in all its forms, as nothing speaks to a human being as a narrative, where one is evoked with empathy. He has lived in London, Norway, and Tanzania. With an initial degree in History, he is currently involved in development and globalization studies and its vast span of foci. Thus, working on a thesis on Tanzanian women’s land rights, in the midst of the chaotic stratifications in a system of legal pluralities, global regimes, local realities, and civil society as mediators in between. Besides women’s rights, William wants to put a spotlight on anyone being marginalized in various ways, by and within their own reality. He knows that everyone has a story to tell, and he will listen.

She attended a trip to Antarctica as part of a larger group of young people celebrating UNESCO’s 50th anniversary that was putting focus on environmental protection, climate change, international cooperation as well as conflict resolution and peace. As a political science major from the University of Aarhus, Denmark, and Sciences-Politique in Lille, France, her career has been within government, diplomacy, and international relations. She has worked for the Government of Greenland (in Nuuk as well as Brussels), the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark, and the intergovernmental organization of the Nordic Council of Ministers - a cooperation between Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Finland, and Iceland along with Greenland, Faroe Islands, and Åland Island. Ms. Bianco’s area of expertise is cooperation and governance in the Arctic and the Nordic countries. Being a native - but global - Greenlander working for cooperation and added value for the Arctic is always an ambition. She also works for stronger trans-Atlantic bonds.cooperation between Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Finland and Iceland along with Greenland, Faroe Islands and Åland Island. After 15 years in government and diplomacy, Ms. Bianco is now an independent consultant with her own company (Isuma Consulting). She does strategic advisory work within Arctic and Nordic affairs and is a freelance journalist and communications adviser. She focuses on the need of connecting the dots - initiatives as well as people. Ms. Bianco has lived in Brussels, Belgium 2006-2010 (working with Greenland’s EU relations) and Toronto, Canada, 2017-2019 (starting up her independent consultancy firm) and she now lives in Copenhagen, Denmark, while traveling the Arctic still.

NOUR MOAZZEN
2021 Sarajejevo Fellow

Nour Moazzen is a Syrian activist, architect, and humanitarian. She is also a Rugby player and an artist. After fleeing from a war zone, Nour assisted her community in Turkey through volunteering and working as an interpreter in Refugee camps. Currently, she is working to support her community in Denmark through raising awareness on issues concerning democracy and human rights in Syria, and advocating for stopping the deportation of Syrian refugees back to Syria. She also employs her architectural knowledge to empower vulnerable groups and communities in post-war zones through locally empowered projects. Nour aspires to go back to Syria, and be part of post-war community building and construction, and to support human rights and social justice as a part of Syria’s future.

#HIA2021 | 52 | Humanity in Action
2021 FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM
Day-by-day schedule
Let the program begin! We will kickstart the Fellowship with an introduction to Humanity in Action and our activities, as well as an introduction to each other. Even though we briefly met online during June, on this day, we will finally get to know each other even better in person. We will have a session to determine our group values in order to build a good foundation for the rest of the Fellowship. In the afternoon we will explore our Fellowship location, Sydhavnen, and conclude our first day with a dinner together at our beautiful location at Karens Minde.

LOCATION: Karens Minde Kulturhus

AGENDA

09.30-10.30 Welcome - Coffee & Croissants
Mikaela v. Freiesleben, National Director, HIA Denmark

10.30-11.00 Introduction to Humanity in Action Denmark
Anders Jerichow, Chair of the HIA Denmark Board of Directors

11.00-13.00 Creating Constructive Dialogue Through Common Values #1
Mette von Andics, Mindfulness Instructor, Coach and Personal Trainer

13.00-14.00 Lunch - delivered by Karens Minde Kulturhus

14.00-16.00 Creating Constructive Dialogue Through Common Values #2
Mette von Andics, Mindfulness Instructor, Coach and Personal Trainer

16.15-18.15 Sydhavnen sightseeing
City Walk by Kaj Thelander Jessen, local tour guide

18.00-20.00 Dinner at Karens Minde Kulturhus
On this second day, we will present common program expectations, code of conduct, staff values and we will have journalist and lecturer Martin Breum introduce the theme of our program: The Unity of the Realm. In the afternoon we will go to Nordatlantens Brygge where we will meet Jóannes V. Hansen, Head of the Faroese Representation in Copenhagen, who will give you a historic overview of the Danish Realm and talk about Danish - Faroese relations.

What is the history of Human Rights? For many years, Denmark has been known as a pioneer of human rights, freedom of speech etc. However, does this image still hold true? Today, we will scrutinize the history and contemporary issues of Human Rights by delving into an alternate history of Human Rights.

These questions will be followed by exploring how Denmark cooperates with Greenland on promoting Human Rights in Greenland, and what Human Rights challenges Greenland faces today.

On the second day dedicated to Human Rights, we will delve deeper into the topics of (de)colonization, sovereignty and Indigenous Peoples from a legal and legislative perspective. Firstly led by Rachael Lorna Johnstone from the University of Akureyri (Iceland) and Ilisimatusarfik (University of Greenland), and then by Tyge Lehmann, a veteran in our Fellowship. Tyge will share stories and anecdotes from his work with the UN and his contribution to the establishment of the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (2007). We will conclude the day with a lecture on the status of Human Rights today - challenges and prospects.

#HIA2021 | 57 | Humanity in Action
We will spend the morning evaluating the Fellowship so far, reviewing our group values and taking a moment to reflect on a personal level.

In the afternoon, we will provoke you to think critically about Human Rights and reflect on how they are predisposed to exclusionary reflexes. We will draw parallels between the social engineering of the Danish Welfare State and the Danish social engineering in Greenland, and end the day with a focus on vulnerable people.

In the second week of our Fellowship, we will dive deeper into the history and present realities of Greenland and Denmark’s colonial past and its consequences. We will begin the week by watching a documentary and participate in a Q&A with the director. Following the film, we will move to the Greenlandic House in Copenhagen and listen to a talk on the role of the Greenlandic Houses in Denmark and touch upon the concept of transgenerational trauma. What is it and how does it affect Greenlanders today?

We will end the day by going on a colonial walk of Copenhagen.

Today's agenda is an eclectic one - with lots of interesting discussions and topics. First, we will hear from Astrid Nonbo Andersen, a researcher focused on historical justice, the politics of history, and memory theory. After our group discussion, we will hear about the UN Sustainable Development Goals and how Denmark works with them on Climate and Energy, followed by our second Open Event in cooperation with Johan Borups Højskole: a discussion on the threats to democracy in a (post) covid world with Clement Kjersgaard, famous Danish TV Anchor, Editor and Public Speaker.
Contemporary Greenland & LGBTQIA+ in the North Atlantic

Thursday's agenda will build off of our previous discussions on both the UN Sustainable Development Goals and Greenland, linking the two in a discussion about Greenland in the Age of the SDGs.

In the afternoon we will learn more about the modernization of Greenland and then take part in the North Atlantic Rainbow Days - part of the Copenhagen Pride Program - when we listen to a talk about Icelandic queer realities of the past. In the early evening it will be possible to watch the Faroese film "Dreams by the Sea", a coming of age film about growing up gay in the Faroe Islands. Read more and sign up: www.nordatlantens.dk/
