Welcome to the 2021 Humanity in Action Warsaw Fellowship

When thinking of the Fellowship as a big picture, there are three crucial and interconnected dimensions: You, Humanity, and Humanity in Action. It is all about people and interactions. We encourage you to learn but also unlearn in order to allow yourself to transform - when you see it needed - your thinking about human rights activism. In the model of collaborative learning, you might be confronted with a variety of opinions and some of them may differ from yours. Listen to them with empathy, embrace them with curiosity and discuss them honestly. Even if you disagree, use it as an opportunity to challenge your way of thinking. Express your disagreement, but be mindful of other Fellows’ opinions, feelings and lived experiences. Compassion, care and empathy are the key values we are dedicated to.

Speaking of Humanity, one can focus only on a little part of it and that is why Poland is our case study. The reaction of civic society to the decision of the Constitutional Tribunal in the Fall of 2020, which in practice imposed a ban on legal abortion, serves as a point of departure in our conversations about Poland today. The ruling sparked a wave of rage and resistance in line with the paradigm: NOTHING ABOUT US WITHOUT US, in particular, because it was made at the peak of the COVID-19 pandemic without any involvement of neither women nor civic society.
At first, women were outraged by yet another attempt of the ruling party to curtail their reproductive rights in the midst of the global pandemic, which would further endanger their health and lives. Soon after, women and their allies transformed their spontaneous ‘walks’ into ad hoc protests, building up a nationwide movement against the current government policies, which violate constitutional, civic and reproductive rights. The movement has succeeded in bringing the attention of mainstream society and international audiences to the violation of women's and other marginalized groups' rights. Their success was possible because they managed to mobilize people of all ages, genders, from across the country - both big cities and small towns or villages, with various economic and educational backgrounds.

Why are these events such an important point of reference? Because they are clear examples of civic courage, allyship and intersectional support. Having in mind these events we will explore together the situation of selected minority groups: Jews, Roma, LGBTIА+, migrants and refugees as well as persons with disabilities – using intersectional perspective as well. How do their various identity dimensions interplay and impact their rights? Why do they need support from others? How to be a compassionate and effective ally of these minority groups? To be able to respond to these questions comprehensively, at the start of the program you will have the opportunity to structure your knowledge about historical, cultural and socio-economic factors that are important in this context. Finally, you will have the chance to work together on the promotion of human rights by developing an online exhibit of objects referring to your activist personal stories.
This way you will experience the Humanity in Action model in practice: you will have the chance to expand your knowledge and improve your competencies, you will be invited to take action to strengthen human rights and you will become a member of a community of like-minded people who might support you in achieving your objectives in case you would need. Being part of this community means embracing diversity and respecting each other as well as being open for dialogue.

We are very happy that we can provide you with the opportunity to join such a rich program. The Fellowship would not be possible without the trust and support of the Foundation “Remembrance, Responsibility and Future”. We appreciate an ongoing dialogue with such an engaged grant-maker on how to make this project even better.

I do hope that the 3 weeks together will not only help you to expand your knowledge about human rights in Poland (and beyond) and develop your skills. Given the experience of the past 15 editions of the Fellowship, I am certain that you will get to know amazing people, collaborate with them, and become inspired in new surprising ways. Let me wish you a truly transformational experience and many new HIA friends and partners in human rights!

Monika Mazur-Rafał
National Director
Humanity in Action Poland
Dr. Andrea Despot
CEO of the EVZ Foundation

Remembrance provides us with orientation in the here and now. By understanding the present, in terms of our ability to make judgments, we can consider various conceivable futures and arrive at the “best” possible course of action for our democratic society.

This is the fundamental principle behind the EVZ Foundation, and historical and political education is key in terms of learning from history, acting according to a moral compass, identifying scope for action, and making use of this scope. All so we can take a stance against marginalization and for human rights “if necessary.” To put it in somewhat more specific terms, historical and political education that has real-life relevance and is designed to be participative has a preventive effect. This type of education has the capacity to embed this responsibility for an inclusive, open community in patterns of individual behavior.

The “Remembrance, Responsibility and Future” Foundation (EVZ) is an expression of political and moral responsibility for Nazi injustices on the part of the state, the private sector, and society. As a foundation under public law, the EVZ Foundation is currently active in the following program categories: a critical examination of history, working for human rights, and commitment to the victims of National Socialism. In 2019, the Foundation provided funding to 309 projects in 20 countries.

Its founding purpose in 2000 was to make payments to former forced laborers under the National Socialist regime. The payment programs were carried out from 2001 to 2007, with 4.4 billion euros in payments made to 1.86 million former forced laborers and their legal successors. Half of the Foundation’s assets were raised by a German industry foundation initiative and half by the Federal Government. A portion of the assets was slated for project funding as a capital-distributing foundation since the EVZ’s inception.
Dr. Judith S. Goldstein received a Bachelors degree from Cornell University in 1962 with a concentration on European and American history. As a Woodrow Wilson Scholar at Columbia University, she then studied for a Masters degree in European history and wrote her thesis on the “Mouvement Republican Populaire and the Franco Vietnamese War, 1946-1954.” In 1972, Judith completed her doctoral studies at Columbia University after writing her dissertation on “The Politics of Ethnic Pressure: The American Jewish Committee Fight Against Immigration Restriction: 1906-1917.” This work was the beginning of a sustained concentration on immigration and diversity in America and Europe. She then continued to work at Columbia University over 10 years by focusing on an oral history project on Ethnic Groups and American Foreign Policy.

In the late 1980s, she began to write a book on the integration of Jewish immigrants in Maine which William Morrow published in 1992. Subsequently, she worked as the Executive Director of Thanks To Scandinavia, started by the Danish pianist Victor Borge to acknowledge Scandinavians who resisted Nazism and protected Jews during the Second World War. In 1997, Judith founded Humanity in Action and began to serve as its Executive Director. She also has an abiding interest in conservation and landscape design and history, especially as it relates to Maine and Mt. Desert Island.
About Humanity in Action

Humanity in Action is a collaborative, international learning community of individuals from or based in Europe and the United States committed to the values of pluralism, liberal democracy, social justice, and human rights, particularly in the transatlantic context. We seek to promote these values through different forms of civic engagement shaped by the specific historical and cultural contexts in which we live.

- We educate to encourage critical exploration of liberal democracy, pluralism, and human rights, within the specific national historical, and contemporary contexts of our Fellowship programs.
- We connect an ever-growing transatlantic community to promote continual learning and collaboration.
- We inspire action for advancing human rights, social justice, and equity.

Through our work:
- We affirm the importance of strengthening democratic values.
- We foster environments in which individuals of diverse backgrounds and identities can engage openly and respectfully with contentious and challenging ideas and each other.
- We support a vision of pluralistic societies that embrace differences and negotiate their boundaries through constructive political, social, and personal dialogue and relationships.
- We build a multinational, intergenerational community of emerging and established leaders who share the Humanity in Action values.
We believe that an important test of a genuine democracy is how it advances social equity and pluralism. We strengthen the commitment of our community to democratic values and foster knowledge around past and present human rights challenges.

The intellectual touchstone for Humanity in Action, founded in 1997, has been the study of acts of resistance - and lack thereof - during the Second World War and the Holocaust. These events raise critical questions: Why do some people resist while others remain bystanders? What connects those who recognize the need to resist? How are acts of resistance influenced by national and historical contexts?

Since Humanity in Action was founded with a focus on the 1943 flight and rescue of the Jews in Denmark during the Holocaust, we have grown conceptually, intellectually, and geographically. Our scope has expanded to include the legacies of American slavery and the Jim Crow era; colonialism and migration; peacebuilding and transitional justice in the Balkans; transitions from authoritarian to democratic forms of government in post-communist societies to other human rights challenges in Europe and the United States.

Intensive and demanding, the Fellowship brings together international groups of university students and recent graduates to explore national histories of discrimination and resistance, as well as examples of issues affecting different minority groups today.
ABOUT HUMANITY IN ACTION POLAND

Humanity in Action Poland is part of the transatlantic Humanity in Action network with non-profit, non-partisan partner organizations in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Denmark, France, the Netherlands, Germany, and the United States.

We focus on respect for human rights and actions supporting democracy, civil society and multiculturalism. We work with young leaders, who wish to deepen their pro-social interests. Those who have a passion to work creatively for people and groups affected by discrimination. We support these leaders in the knowledge development and skills necessary to sensibly and effectively counteract prejudices while also responding to manifestations of hateful attitudes and behaviors.

We advise them on how to improve and implement projects. We promote the work and achievements of the alumni of our programs. We foster long-term cooperation as part of an international network of leaders. We encourage them to share their skills and experience with the younger generation of activists. We also expose these nascent leaders to the realities of day-to-day human rights work through internship programs.

We created the first network of activists with disabilities and non-disabled people in Poland and the first nationwide congress for cyber activists (Strefa Interakcji/Interaction Zone). Since 2006, we have successfully carried out our flagship program: The International Academy of Human Rights / Humanity in Action’s Warsaw Fellowship. Since 2018, we have implemented the pilot project “Przestrzeń Działania/Impact Hub”, which combines tools used in the education, technology, and activism fields to effectively strengthen human rights and social entrepreneurship activities as well as to counteract hate speech.

The Humanity in Action Poland Foundation has been awarded for its activities many times. In 2015, we received the prestigious Intercultural Achievement Award. As part of the 2016 S3KTOR competition in Warsaw, the Foundation was awarded the prize for ‘Best Non-Governmental initiative’ in the Education category, as well as a special prize from Warsaw residents. Moreover, in 2018 Kuchnia Konfliktu/Conflict Kitchen – an initiative founded by a graduate of our Academy – also received the S3KTOR distinction as a result of a poll among the residents.
Code of Conduct

Humanity in Action is committed to providing a respectful environment to all those involved in its programs. Fellows, Senior Fellows, Program Interns and Staff in all countries (collectively, “Network Members”) are ambassadors of Humanity in Action and should demonstrate appropriate conduct in the programs and in public. This Code of Conduct describes Humanity in Action’s expectations for the behavior of its Network Members throughout their time in the Fellowship programs and all network activities. Humanity in Action’s Board of Directors follows a similar Code of Conduct which is appropriate for the Board Members’ engagement with Humanity in Action.

RESPECT FOR SPEAKERS

Network Members approach speakers with respect and with a desire to learn – including speakers with whom they strongly disagree. Humanity in Action does not assume that Network Members will agree with all the viewpoints presented by all the speakers. Humanity in Action encourages Network Members to vocalize their disagreements in a respectful and constructive manner. Network Members may attend sessions during the programs that are confidential, off-the-record or sensitive in subject matter. They agree to follow the requests of speakers and the program staff regarding confidentiality, attribution and social media.

RESPECT FOR PEERS AND STAFF MEMBERS

All Network Members approach each other with respect. The themes presented during Humanity in Action programs are challenging and often highly sensitive. Network Members approach discussions with maturity, honesty and an openness to explore their own perspectives and those of others. Network Members engage in these highly sensitive discussions in ways that are constructive for each individual and the group.

CULTURAL SENSITIVITY & ADAPTABILITY

Network Members are sensitive to cultural and social differences and recognize that some of the behaviors they may find uncomfortable could pertain to these different contexts. Although cultural misunderstandings may occur – during and outside the program – Network Members should always show respect and a willingness to understand and work through these cultural differences as best as possible.
TIMELINESS

Network Members attend each scheduled session at the designated times. Should a Network Member need to arrive late, the Network Member should contact program staff in advance. Program staff may excuse absences on a case-by-case basis.

NATIONAL & LOCAL LAW

All Network Members follow the laws governing the countries where Humanity in Action activities take place and are susceptible to associated penalties should those laws be broken. Network Members are ambassadors of Humanity in Action and should demonstrate appropriate behavior.

SAFETY & HARASSMENT

Humanity in Action is committed to providing an environment where people can interact comfortably and freely from any form of harassment, sexual or otherwise. Such harassment or offensive behavior may relate to race, gender, sexual orientation and identity, religion, national origin, disability, or other protected statuses and/or identities.

Network Members refrain from offensive behavior and remarks in the program involving other Network Members, Board Members, visitors, speakers and/or other third parties.

Humanity in Action will promptly investigate reported cases of harassment. Please see Humanity in Action’s Harassment Policy for further details.

RELATIONSHIPS

Humanity in Action Staff, Program Interns and Board Members do not engage in intimate, sexual or romantic relationships, suggestive or otherwise, with Fellows throughout the duration of the Fellowship programs. All Staff and Board Members also refrain from engaging in intimate, sexual or romantic relationships, suggestive or otherwise, with Program Interns throughout the duration of the programs.

ADJUDICATION

Network Members are encouraged to report immediately any issue or concern to any staff member. Humanity in Action will investigate each reported issue/concern and will take appropriate action.

Network Members who fail to comply with Humanity in Action’s Code of Conduct may be subject to penalties. When possible and appropriate, Humanity in Action staff will provide a warning of a breach of the Code of Conduct to Network Members and give them the opportunity to amend their behavior.

Humanity in Action staff will adjudicate minor issues on a case-by-case basis.

Serious breaches of the Code of Conduct could lead Humanity in Action staff to immediate dismiss a Network Member from the program and network after consultation with the Executive Director.
As in society at large, also in Humanity in Action’s educational programs, and in other ventures of the Humanity in Action community, situations that are in violation of the organization’s code of conduct can arise. Humanity in Action Poland has established a designated point of contact to serve members of the Humanity in Action network, including the Fellows of this program, who experience abusive, racist, sexist, homophobic, or other forms of discriminatory behavior that emanate from other members of the network. While Humanity in Action staff is at the Fellows’ full disposal to support victims of any incidents of such kind, a designated board member is additionally available via phone or e-mail as it might in some situations be more comfortable to confide in someone who has a greater distance from Humanity in Action programming or any parties involved in such incidents.

Magda Szarota is our Ombudsperson, our designated point of contact to serve members of the Humanity in Action network, including Fellows of this program, who experience abusive, racist, sexist, homophobic, or other forms of discriminatory behavior that emanate from other members of the network. She will listen closely to anyone affected and will advise on a confidential basis. Where necessary, and only after consulting with the affected person, the ombudsperson may choose to involve another person from the Board of Directors and/or involve a professional to work on the case.

FELLOWSHIP
This year’s tribute goes to the collective force of change, the wave of people of diverse backgrounds and identities, young and elderly, seasoned activists, and the ones participating in a protest for the first time ever! To be in a sea of people demanding positive social change is an empowering and exhilarating experience.

Yet, instead of singling out individuals and leaders, we want to give recognition to the movement alone. In the case of Poland, that’s the 100,000-strong march of people who stood up for their right to self-determination, taking over Warsaw on October 30, 2020.

It all started just a week earlier, on October 22, when the Constitutional Tribunal ruled that abortion on the grounds of fetal abnormality is unconstitutional, in practice imposing a near ban on abortion in Poland.

The response and mobilization of the society were unprecedented. The women and their allies who took to the streets in 2020 will go down in history, but just as importantly, they will give rise to a new generation of feminists (regardless of one’s gender) - revolutionary, but not exclusionary, attuned to social injustices and intersecting identities.

Lastly, it is a tribute to sisterhood (not cisterhood) and solidarity. “When the state does not protect me / my sisters will” chanted the crowds waiting outside police stations for those brutally detained during the protests.

This is how herstory is made, collectively!

Program Structure

The 2021 Fellowships kick-off with a virtual program of three weeks, with four hours of programming per day and sufficient rest moments. Because of the different time zones, Fellows come together between 10:00 am and 2:00 pm (EDT)/16:00 and 20:00 (CEST). The virtual program consists of:

- Sessions for the entire international 2021 - Fellows cohort (opening and closing sessions on topics of common interest such as the Colonial Era, the Second World War, the Holocaust);
- Sessions for the national Fellowship cohorts (to address country-specific themes ranging from lectures to games and from virtual museum tours to film screenings);
- Breakout sessions of groups of national Fellow cohorts (to build a community);
- Public virtual live events with top speakers.

Each program thus provides a virtual hybrid curriculum to explore the international and national historical and cultural context in which challenges to pluralism and democracy occur.

The programs are interdisciplinary, collaborative, and engaging learning experiences; they feature lectures and discussions/dialogues with researchers, journalists, politicians, activists, and artists.

The goal of these programs is to foster cross-cultural understanding and an appreciation of different perspectives and approaches for assessing past and contemporary social justice. After the three-week virtual hybrid program, Fellows will continue to develop and implement Action Projects to address social justice issues in their own communities.
Warsaw Fellowship Structure: Knowledge, Skills and Action

The national part of the Fellowship consists of three units: Knowledge, Skills and Action. Knowledge sessions tackle Poland’s history and current human rights challenges with a focus on hate speech targeting minorities. Skills sessions focus on learning methods and tools useful in your human rights activist work. Skills acquired during these sessions are then put into practice in the Action component, where you will cooperate in smaller groups and individually. By combining theory and practice in the Fellowship, you will broaden your knowledge, develop your activist know-how and expand your activist network.

KNOWLEDGE

The national part of the program treats Poland as a main case study and point of reference. The guiding question is: How has the Polish state and society been dealing with human rights challenges from the historical and contemporary perspective? The program aims to explore historical, cultural, and socio-economic contexts in which human rights challenges arise and civic society responses are developed.

Taking into consideration the specific focus on diversity and interconnected challenges, for instance in form of discrimination and hate speech, we will cover mechanisms generating conditions in which discrimination, xenophobia and hate speech arise, persist and grow stronger. Secondly, the program will serve as a platform for discussion on, among others, the issues of democracy’s fragility, minorities’ rights, and taking action against discrimination and hate speech.
SKILLS AND ACTION

Apart from the theoretical insights gained in the Knowledge part, you will also learn about different modes of action during meetings with HIA Senior Fellows and activists, who will share good practices from their work. This Fellowship will focus on methods and tools of artivism - an intersection of activism and art. Using visual arts is a powerful way of bringing about social change and inspiring action. You will have the opportunity to translate your knowledge and skills into action by putting together an exhibit of objects related to your activism.

During the program, you will master the art of storytelling in an ethical, but inspiring manner. Your assignment is to choose one object that carries a personal activist story you would like to share with others. The object is of your personal choice, it can be a piece of paper, scrapbook, clothing, fabric, flyer, poster...anything that can be used as a touchstone to draw you into a larger story. You will be refining the narrative and working on the form of object presentation during the workshops with art professionals. In smaller groups and individually, you will further develop and conceptualize the exhibit of your chosen objects with the supervision and mentoring from Humanity in Action Poland staff.
Your Engagement

FELLOWS' CORNER

Throughout the Fellowship you will have a space to introduce yourself and your human rights activist path during the Fellows’ Corner sessions. This is your moment to shine and to share your story: what you do and why you do it. You will have 5 minutes to present and 3-4 minutes for a Q&A session. As the time is limited (which is often a real-life situation during activist work), we suggest you prepare a video, PowerPoint, or Prezi presentation in advance. Think of it as an elevator pitch of yourself!

MEMORY BOARD

Also, you will be invited to contribute to the 2021 Warsaw Fellowship Memory Board - an online space, where you add photos, videos, quotes, graphics and all materials that capture your experience of the Fellowship. You will receive a link to the website where you can add your content. With every Fellow leaving their personal mark, at the end of the Fellowship we will have a Memory Board - the online collage documenting your Warsaw Fellowship experience!

FELLOWS’ DISCUSSION

Almost every day of the Knowledge sessions, usually between 18:00-19:00 CEST| 12-1 p.m. EDT, there will be time for the Fellows’ Discussion. It is a moment for you to review important issues of the given day and/or to continue the discussions started during previous sessions. Fellows’ Discussions are facilitated by three Fellows. The role of the facilitators is to prepare and plan the format of the discussion and to lead the meeting. Two days before the discussion, the facilitators need to consult their ideas with the Humanity in Action staff.
Tips for the facilitators of the Fellows` Discussions:

1. Come up with a structure for the discussion: have a specific plan in mind with questions ready in case there is an uncomfortable silence:)

2. Incorporate different forms of activities such as smaller group work, debates (e.g. Oxford-style debate, yes/no debate), brainstorming, discussion on the forum, role play, mind map, visualization (making a poster/collage together), drama, film, simulation games. The possibilities are endless!

3. Consider a few possible scenarios of the meeting as the discussion can verge into different directions.

4. Remember that Fellows are likely to be a bit weary after the whole afternoon of sessions. This is why we encourage you to include some entertainment at the beginning of the session such as energizers or physical activity. Include it in your agenda.

5. Let everyone feel safe, included and active.

6. Before you ask Humanity in Action staff for feedback, please prepare an agenda of the discussion according to these guidelines:

   ‣ What is the purpose of the discussion?
   ‣ What kind of methods would you like to use?
   ‣ What results would you like to achieve?
   ‣ How will you keep Fellows engaged/focused?
Ground Rules

To ensure productive sessions, we have created a few ground rules of engagement during the Fellowship.

ARRIVE ON TIME

Please log on 10 minutes before each session of the Fellowship. You may disrupt the presentation by logging in late as well as miss important information.

APPROPRIATE SETTINGS

Please make sure your settings are appropriate for e-learning, meaning minimal background noise and other disturbances, e.g. neutral/calm background setting; avoid busy cafes or settings with people/movement in the background.

DRESS APPROPRIATELY

While learning together remotely, take a few minutes to put yourself in the right headspace to be productive by dressing appropriately.

MAKE SURE YOUR MIC IS ON MUTE

To help keep background noise to a minimum, make sure you mute your microphone when you are not speaking. However, don’t forget to unmute your mic when you want to add to the conversation or ask a question.

YOU ARE ENcouraged TO TURN ON YOUR CAMERA

Position your camera in a stable position and focused at eye level. Doing so helps create a more direct sense of engagement with other participants.

BE FULLY PRESENT (MIND & BODY)

We encourage you to avoid multitasking. You might miss out on key information or an opportunity to give input. Please bear in mind that sessions are created for YOU!

You can make it easier to focus on the meeting by turning off notifications, closing or minimizing running apps, and muting your smartphone.
FOOD

Please use the designated screen breaks to eat or snack, not only is it distracting to others it might also be to you.

SCREEN NAME, PRONOUN, AND PROGRAM AFFILIATION

During international sessions, we will be 100+ fellows, staff, and speakers in one virtual room. Your screen name and program affiliation will help identify you as well as help you identify others.

We also kindly ask you to state your pronouns. Using someone’s correct gender pronouns is one of the most basic ways to show your respect for their identity.

Therefore, please write your name on the screen thus: Name, pronoun (country affiliation), e.g.: Zuzanna, she/her (PL)

CONFIDENTIALITY - DO NOT SHARE ZOOM LINKS WITH OUTSIDERS

Unfortunately, Zoom bombing has become a phenomenon not uncommon to organizations such as our own.

In order not to risk intruders or other unwelcome visitors who may wish to disturb or otherwise disrupt our sessions, do not share Zoom links with anyone outside the organisation.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO A PRODUCTIVE, INSPIRING, AND ENGAGING LEARNING ENVIRONMENT!

Breakout Session: Reflections

19.50-20.00
Wrap-Up| Raissa Biekman, Program Manager, Humanity in Action The Netherlands
Today is dedicated to the Shoah. We will take a closer look at the history that prompted Humanity in Action to be founded in the late 1990s – the flight and rescue of the Danish Jews in 1943. Thereafter we will expand the historic exploration and work in breakout rooms on a number of topics including remembrance, Jewish life in Europe today as well as Antisemitism. We will close the day by learning more about the remembrance culture of the Shoah in Germany today.

Wrap-Up| Yael Herskovits Agbabiaka, National Director, Humanity in Action, Inc.
Is dialogue even possible in a society so deeply divided as it is the case in Poland? To reflect on the current state of Poland’s crumbling democracy, we will examine how the social and political landscape has changed over the last 30 years. Who has been left out from the success story of the post-communist transformation? In renouncing its socialist legacy, Poland had lost its sense of community and solidarity. Having failed to critically reflect on transformation and to act upon the exacerbated inequalities, a quarter of a century later Poland is experiencing numerous human rights backlashes fuelled by xenophobic nationalism and populism.

“The well-being of women determines the well-being of society,” famously said feminist activist Gloria Steinem. What does it say then about Polish society? To understand why tens of thousands of Polish women and their allies have taken to the streets demanding their fundamental right to self-determination, we will hear from the female scholars, activists, and authors at the forefront of the struggle for women’s reproductive rights. We will also unpack the rising wave of anti-genderism, a global mobilization built on opposition towards gender equality, sex education, and LGBTQ rights.

The COVID-19 pandemic has exposed and exacerbated the shadow pandemic of violence against women. Trapped at home with their abuser, victim-survivors have been further isolated from assistance and social support networks. The pandemic has also unleashed a tsunami of hate, with hate speech flourishing online and anti-Asian racism rising. How can we better equip ourselves to confront our own biases and counteract hate speech, online as well as offline? What actions can we take to help end gender-based violence?

Minority communities are increasingly being targeted by right-wing politicians and media, which results in their marginalization and persecution, among other forms of physical, psychological, structural, and cultural violence. How accommodating is Poland to its minorities? Who gets to belong? Today we will reflect on the postcolonial concept of the ‘Other’, tackling the causes and manifestations of islamophobia. We will also hear firsthand accounts of what is the experience of being a refugee and migrant living in Poland, Europe’s most homogenous society.

In the last two years, the LGBTQI+ community has experienced significant violations of their rights. Violence towards queer community members has intensified, fueled by dehumanizing hate campaigns propagated by the government. Today we will discuss the current situation of the queer community and learn about activist strategies to counteract human rights violations. We will also make the space to share impressions from the Fellowship so far and learn how to own one’s story.

How is Genocide organized? How was the Holocaust conducted? Genocide never happens 'out of the blue' nor is it something that cannot be stopped. On the contrary, it is made up of smaller steps, which if not prevented lead to the unthinkable. The questions may sound banal but isn’t it the banality of evil (Arendt, H. 1963) that really lays the foundation for the unthinkable? This day will deal with the history of the German Nazi camps and the Holocaust. We will also learn about the courage of female Jewish activists and artists who sought to change the world in line with the Talmudic teachings of Tikkun Olam.

Today we will take a closer look at the so-called “invisible minorities” - the Romani people and people with disabilities - who are particularly disadvantaged, systematically marginalized as well as overlooked in mainstream social sciences. While learning about mechanisms of exclusion, we will highlight successful examples of advocacy for recognition and protection, focusing on women’s role in their fight for human rights.
There are many ways to inspire action and bring about social change. One way is using visual arts and bringing into visibility topics and subjects otherwise unseen. What is the role of visual culture in activism and how does art contribute to political discourse and social change? We will keep these questions in mind, as we begin conceptualizing our exhibit.

The 2021 Humanity in Action Fellowships are drawing to a close. But this is not goodbye. This is welcome to the network. It's time to look ahead! The three coming days mark the beginning of the Action Project phase and your future engagement as members of our community. We will embark on this journey together by recapping what you've learned, discussed, been frustrated with, rejoiced over for the past three weeks. This is your time to show and tell (and show off). We will dive into our Action Project Labs and what you can expect from the fall and winter. Finally, on June 23, we will end this first intense part of your year-long fellowship engagement in a celebratory fashion. Let the real change-making begin!

POST-FELLOWSHIP REQUIREMENTS

Apart from the obligation to implement your Action Project, Humanity in Action expects you to evaluate the program by:

‣ Contributing to the project evaluation (sharing your observations in a constructive manner, completing the evaluation survey, etc.)

‣ Writing a letter to Humanity in Action Board Chairs in which you share your impression of the Fellowship. Please comment on the positive aspects, but also give critical insights on what should be revised. In order for us to improve, we need your honest feedback!

‣ Optional but much appreciated: leaving an opinion on our FB page and/or short testimonial for PR purposes.

SENIOR FELLOW NETWORK

Once our Fellows have completed their Fellowship program and conducted an Action Project in their own community, they are invited to join the international Humanity in Action Senior Fellow Network. Our 2,500+ Senior Fellows work around the world, across many different industries including government, journalism, medicine, law, education, the arts, business and grassroots action. We strongly encourage you to stay engaged within the SF Networks and support one another.

You can cooperate with any of the existing national SF Networks, but for practical reasons, Poles and Ukrainians are advised to become members of the Polish Senior Network, whereas Americans of the American Senior Network, etc.

INTERNSHIPS

There is a wide range of internships for HIA Senior Fellows. When the opportunity arises, we publish the Call for Applications on the Humanity in Action website and our Senior Fellow FB page.
ACTION PROJECT

Action Project is an individual project realized by Fellows within a year after the Humanity in Action Fellowship. You have as many as 12 months (or 365 days!) to research the problem, design the solution, implement the action and make an impact!

Action Projects serve three goals: on the personal level, it is all about gaining know-how in a field of your liking. Try yourself as a project manager, researcher, innovator, community organizer, whatever role suits you best. We have seen many Action Projects be an impulse to a future professional career or a long-term passion. It can also be just a one-off event or initiative, it is all up to you! We simply hope that the Action Project will help move your Humanity in Action experience from one of educational inquiry into action. And that its completion will open the door to many opportunities within Humanity in Action and beyond!

It is our mission to prepare young leaders like yourself to make a public impact in the field of human and minority rights. The Action Project is supposed to be a meaningful demonstration of our Fellows’ capacity to engage in this work. Thus, Action Projects should be designed to make some impact on public debate in your (local) community and/or address specific social, civic, cultural, or political barriers that you choose to focus on through your initiative. Last but not least, we are hoping that in your endeavor, you will reach out to our Board Members, Senior Fellows and experts! Why not take your Action Project further and try to make a change on the institutional level? We are here for you! It is our goal to be supportive of your personal and professional goals – reach out to us, and let us help you make your project more worthwhile.
ACTION PROJECT

Remember: Everyone at HIA is rooting for you and your Action Project. There are plenty of skills, know-how, experiences and insights within our Network - reach out, whenever you want!

Fellows: We are stronger together, so why not collaborate with other Fellows or Senior Fellows? Action Project teams are welcome! Otherwise, pick their brains or simply ask for feedback and a helping hand. We are here for you!

Senior Fellows: There is a broad range of professional and academic expertise within the community of Senior Fellows. We encourage you to network with Senior Fellows who have designed successful Action Projects in prior years, as well as with those Senior Fellows who have professional experience that will enhance your project. Come for the events, meet Senior Fellows, exchange insights – or use Humanity in Action Connect & Senior Fellows’ Facebook Groups to reach out to specific Community Members.

National Directors: The Directors of your home country are a great resource for learning about past successful Action Projects, as well as national resources (experienced Senior Fellows, experts, partner organizations) and external funding sources that might be available for your initiative. Come, have tea/coffee and we will chat about your ideas! And we know: things happen and life gets in the way. In case you need more time to implement your Action Project, contact the Program Director for approval before the deadline, preferably around February/March of the year following the Fellowship.

HER DOCS film festival

4,500 viewers. 100 mentions in the media. 61 Polish and foreign documentary films, animations, and videos. 46 screenings. 36 partners and matrons. 20 female directors. 20 accompanying events. 5 days of debates in a safe space about equality, fundamental rights, sexuality, body, identity, and stereotypes in the perception of gender and social roles. That is, in a nutshell, HER Docs, an Action Project of Katarzyna Korytowska, and Maja Szydłowska, Polish Fellows of the 2018 Berin program.

HER Docs is the first and only Polish film festival presenting the works of female film auteurs. Building on the success of the first edition of the festival, Maja and Kasia established a foundation and are busy working on the next editions of the festival and interconnected initiatives.

MENTAL HEALTH BUDDIES SUPPORT NETWORK

The AP of Marcelina Rosińska, Mental Health Buddies, has become a widely recognized and award-winning grassroots project. Its core objective is to ensure that every person struggling with a mental health problem – i.e. anyone who has ever felt isolated, misunderstood, or stigmatized – receives the necessary support. In essence, young people support other young people, where a group of university volunteers acts as friend-mentors.

In this role, they encourage their fellow students to visit psychologists, check in regularly with their peers, making themselves available in everyday difficulties and responsibilities related to university life.

As Marcelina emphasizes, "The purpose of the network is not to provide professional assistance, but to offer basic support to its members free-of-charge. Specialist assistance belongs to professionals. We create an additional support network."

@QUEERFEMINISM IG account

Anna Wiatrowska made her first post on Instagram on January 17, 2020, she couldn’t have foreseen that in just a few months @queerowyfeminizm would be one of the most influential educational accounts, amassing over 80k followers hungry for social change. Having no prior experience with social media, Anna credits her time in Atlanta, where as a Humanity in Action/John Lewis Fellow, she learned how to creatively use media for activism – making podcasts and interviewing the local community.

In her Instagram posts, Anna advises how to prepare for a conversation with a homophobic or racist family member, how to take up responsibility and react when injustice happens. She doesn’t shy away from controversy, like pointing out the transphobia within the women’s movement or calling out the major commercial chain for selling an openly homophobic book.

Every day Anna takes on a different issue, dismantling gender, class, and racial stereotypes. She does the job which in a well-functioning society would be left to sexuality or anti-discrimination educators, had such subjects been taught in Polish schools.

"We will not lose hope that one day there will be a breakthrough and we will build a normal state. A state of equal people, regardless of gender. And then we must ensure that any change is accompanied by discussion, by gaining social legitimacy. Today there is a deep deficit of debate, making many changes ad hoc. The state of the future must be different"
