Meet Our Partners & Supporters

Humanity in Action The Netherlands cordially thanks all partners, supporters, speakers, participating organizations, and Senior Fellows. Without their dedicated help, the realization of this program would not be possible.

Humanity in Action The Netherlands is grateful for all our individual sponsors and friends. We specifically thank Arnout Schuijff for his generous support to Humanity in Action The Netherlands in 2020 and 2021.

Welcome Letter

Dear 2021 Amsterdam Fellows,

A virtual welcome to the Netherlands!

The Amsterdam Fellowship enables participants to examine contemporary questions around human rights, democracy, and inclusion from a Dutch perspective. Fellows examine patterns and mechanisms that underpin human rights related challenges today, by learning from historical examples. The program traditionally takes the Second World War and the Holocaust as a starting point - a devastating example of the collapse of democracy and the denial of minority rights. Furthermore, the curriculum dives into the Dutch colonial past, as well as post Second World War labor migration to the Netherlands.

The program repeatedly bridges historical narratives to more recent developments, rigorously exploring Dutch present-day societal challenges from different angles. We dive into the relationships between minority and majority populations, marginalized groups, the role of civil society, and phenomena of social (in)justice. We facilitate a collective exploration of the social, economic, and political roots of institutional racism in the Netherlands and provide a forum for the discussion of potential solutions. We ask ourselves: Why do some people resist while others remain bystanders?

We are in need of diverse new thinkers and doers from different disciplines and walks of life, who are committed to human rights, democracy, and social justice.
There is a concrete urgency to strengthen inclusive social cohesion and civic engagement among young people. Therefore, we consider dialogue between our transatlantic Fellows one of the most important elements of the Humanity in Action experience. Even - and in particular - in these times in which we still cannot meet physically. In light of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the 2021 Humanity in Action Fellowships kickoff will take place virtually from June 1 to June 23, 2021. We start and end the 2021 Fellowship kickoff with an international opening and closing program, with over 100 Fellows from across Europe and the United States. We are honoured to welcome the 2021 cohort and look forward to embarking on this virtual adventure together!

The Humanity in Action Amsterdam Fellowship exists because of our great supporters. We are deeply thankful to Democracy and Media Foundation, The United States Embassy in The Hague, Fred Foundation, and our individual sponsors for their continued and crucial support over the years. We are forever grateful to all Senior Fellows, friends, partners, speakers, volunteers, our Advisory Committee, and our Board for their continued engagement and support.

Yours sincerely,

On behalf of the Humanity in Action The Netherlands team,

Laura Lasance
Executive Director
Humanity in Action The Netherlands
About Humanity in Action The Netherlands

Humanity in Action The Netherlands is an independent, not-for-profit Dutch organization. The organization was founded in 1999 and has since then been an active partner in the international Humanity in Action network, collaborating closely with Humanity in Action offices in Poland, Denmark, Germany, Bosnia and Herzegovina, and the United States. Humanity in Action The Netherlands is a non-partisan organization.

Humanity in Action The Netherlands empowers young people as leaders and agents of change in the fields of human rights, democracy, and an inclusive society. We develop intensive motivational education programs for adolescents, students, and young professionals. We also support integral civic engagement activities, organize public events, and develop tailor-made training programs.

We strongly believe in the power of diversity. We look to connect young talent from diverse social, political, religious, and cultural backgrounds. We challenge these young leaders-to-be to reflect critically on their context, privileges and positionality, to learn from each other's views, convictions, cultures, and identities. All with one goal: to take positive action in our society.

Humanity in Action The Netherlands boasts more than 240 Senior Fellows in the Netherlands - entrepreneurs, government officials, artists, academics, lawyers, journalists, politicians, and activists. In many different ways, they continue to contribute to an inclusive society personally, be it as an International Policy Director at Stanford University and former European Parliament Representative (Marietje Schaake), Alderman (Ufuk Kâhya, Den Bosch), anthropologist and activist (Mitchell Esajas, The Black Archives), or journalist (Anouk Eigenraam). Senior Fellows play an important role in the various programs that are organized by us.
Our Activities

AMSTERDAM FELLOWSHIP

The Netherlands has a reputation for being liberal and tolerant: a model nation for the protection of minority rights. The Amsterdam Fellowship offers an opportunity to consider where that reputation is deserved and where there is deeper work to do. Fellows look at the nation’s history—the Second World War and the Holocaust, as well as Dutch colonialism and slavery—to understand how democracy breaks down when minority groups are denied rights.

LANDECKER DEMOCRACY FELLOWSHIP

In partnership with the Alfred Landecker Foundation, Humanity in Action launched the Landecker Democracy Fellowship in 2020. Each year, the Fellowship brings together 30 diverse leaders from the European Union, the United Kingdom and the United States who spend one year on creating projects that reinvent democratic spaces, strengthen social cohesion and build connections across communities. With financial support, the second cohort of the #LandeckerFellows work together from November 7, 2021 to November 6, 2022.

HIA JUNIOR

Inspired by our flagship Fellowship in Amsterdam, HIA Junior was created to offer a similar collaborative learning & action opportunity on human rights-related societal topics, for engaged youngsters.

PUBLIC EVENTS

We organize public events on pressing societal challenges. Our public events include lectures, symposia, talks, campaigns, and video- and podcast series.

TRAININGS

Upon request, we design and run training programs for groups up to 25 people on the following themes:

- Inclusivity & Diversity
- Discrimination
- Human Rights in the Netherlands
- Youth Leadership
Code of Conduct

HUMANITY IN ACTION

Humanity in Action is committed to providing a respectful environment to all those involved in its programs. Fellows, Senior Fellows, Staff, Program Interns and Board Members in all participating countries (collectively, “Network Members”) are ambassadors of Humanity in Action and should demonstrate appropriate conduct in the programs and in public during the duration of Humanity in Action programs. This Code of Conduct describes Humanity in Action’s expectations for the behavior of its Network Members throughout their participation in the Fellowship programs and all other network activities. The envisioned purpose of this Code of Conduct is to promote a constructive learning environment for all Network Members, particularly our Fellows. Guest speakers, volunteers, freelancers and trainers will also be informed about our network’s Code of Conduct. The Code of Conduct is not intended to be comprehensive or to address all possible applications of, or exceptions to, Humanity in Action’s expectations, nor is it intended to in any way limit a Network Member’s rights to communicate with a government agency, as provided for, protected under or warranted by applicable law. In addition, we understand that different terms mean different things in different contexts, languages and countries. If you have any questions, please ask for clarification.

RESPECT FOR THE COMMUNITY

All Network Members approach each other with respect. The themes presented during Humanity in Action programs are challenging, often contested, highly complex and potentially sensitive. Network Members are expected to approach and engage in discussions with respect, maturity, honesty, and an openness to explore their own perspectives and those of others in ways that are constructive for each individual and the group.

RESPECT FOR GUEST SPEAKERS & TRAINERS

Network Members approach guest speakers and trainers with respect and with a desire to learn – even from guest speakers with whom they strongly disagree. Humanity in Action does not assume that Network Members will agree with all the viewpoints presented by all guest speakers. Humanity in Action encourages Network
Members to communicate their disagreements in a respectful and constructive manner.

Network Members may attend sessions during the programs that are sensitive in subject matter, confidential, or off-the-record. They agree to follow the requests of guest speakers and the Staff regarding confidentiality, attribution, recording/photography and social media.

ACTIVE PARTICIPATION, ATTENDANCE & TIMELINESS

Network Members are expected to be active participants and to attend each scheduled session at the designated times. Should a Network Member need to arrive late, the Network Member should contact Staff in advance. Staff may excuse absences on a case-by-case basis.

RESPECT FOR HOSTS & ACCOMMODATIONS

Network Members comport themselves in places of accommodation – whether hotels, hostels, homestays or other locations – with respect and comply with any associated rules or standards of conduct. Non-Network Members cannot stay overnight in any Humanity in Action-sponsored accommodations without pre-approval from Staff and, where applicable, homestay hosts. If placed in homestays, Network Members should be sensitive to their hosts’ expectations and show an openness and eagerness to get to know the hosts and their family.

DIVERSITY & INCLUSION

Humanity in Action believes in the value of diversity and is committed to actively creating an environment where each Network Member feels empowered to learn, grow, and maximize their personal contribution. Celebrating the similarities and differences that shape each of us is important and will help spread our mission.

We promote an inclusive atmosphere and ensure that our Network Members are always treated with dignity and respect.
NO DISCRIMINATION AND/OR HARRASSMENT & MAINTAINING CULTURAL SENSITIVITY

Humanity in Action is committed to providing an environment where people are free from any form of harassment, discrimination, abuse, and retaliation. Network Members are prohibited from harassing or discriminating against another Network Member on the basis of racial identifiers or race, color, sex, religion, ethnicity, national origin, ancestry, citizenship, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, pregnancy, marital/familial status, military or veteran status, genetic information, cultural, social, political, economic differences and/or any other characteristic protected by applicable national, state or local. Network Members must maintain a program environment that promotes mutual respect and dignity and that recognizes the various cultural, ethnic, and religious backgrounds of our Network Members. Our program environment must remain free of all forms of discrimination, harassment and retaliation.

As such, Network Members are expected to be cognizant of, and sensitive to, differences in both historical and contemporary contexts. Network Members are also expected to recognize that some of the beliefs and behaviors could pertain to these different contexts. Although misunderstandings may occur Network Members should always show respect and a willingness to understand and work through these differences both respectfully and constructively.

In addition, as noted above, sexual harassment will not be tolerated by Humanity in Action. For purposes of the Code of Conduct, sexual harassment includes harassment on the basis of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, and the status of being transgender. Regardless of whether it is unlawful in certain countries, sexual harassment is strictly prohibited by Humanity in Action, and this prohibition includes any unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal, physical or visual conduct of a sexual nature when any of the following occur:

Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual’s employment or status in a program or activity; Submission to, or rejection of, such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for program decisions affecting that individual.
Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual’s participation in the network or of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive program environment even if the complaining individual is not the intended target of the sexual harassment.

A sexually harassing environment includes, but is not limited to, words, signs, jokes, pranks, intimidation or physical violence which are of a sexual nature or which are directed at an individual because of that individual’s sex. Sexual harassment may also consist of unwanted verbal or physical advances, sexually explicit derogatory statements or sexually discriminatory remarks. Sexual harassment can occur between any individuals, regardless of their sex or gender. A harasser can be any Network Member, guest speaker, trainers, volunteers, freelancers and/ or other visitor.

PERSONAL RELATIONSHIPS

In order to promote the efficient operation of Humanity in Action and its mission, and to avoid misunderstandings, complaints of favoritism, abuse of power and other problems of supervision, security or morale, Humanity in Action prohibits Network Members from developing a romantic or sexual relationship where there is an actual supervisor/subordinate relationship. To that end, consensual personal relationships between Fellows, volunteers or freelancers and staff, Program Interns or Board Members are prohibited during program participation. Other Network Members who engage in such relationships must use their judgment and avoid the perception or fact of abuse of power, undue advantage, favoritism, or exploitation. Should a consensual personal relationship no longer be consensual, the principles around sexual harassment may apply.

NATIONAL AND LOCAL LAW

All Network Members must follow the laws governing the countries, states, municipalities, and cities where Humanity in Action activities take place and are susceptible to associated penalties for violations of those laws. If any matter is referred to the national authorities, it will be addressed in accordance with applicable law.
ADJUDICATION

If a potential violation of the Code of Conduct occurs, Humanity in Action asks Network Members to promptly inform a Program Director, Program Manager and/or Ombudsperson so Humanity in Action can promptly and thoroughly review and respond appropriately. Network Members who fail to comply with Humanity in Action’s Code of Conduct may be subject to penalties. When possible and appropriate, Humanity in Action will provide a warning of a breach of the Code of Conduct to Network Members and give them the opportunity to amend their behavior. Humanity in Action will address issues on a case-by-case basis. Serious breaches of the Code of Conduct could lead Humanity in Action to dismiss immediately a Network Member from a program and/or the Network at the individual’s own expense.
Meet our Founder

JUDITH GOLDSTEIN
Founder and Executive Director

Dr. Judith S. Goldstein received a Bachelor’s degree from Cornell University in 1962 with a concentration on European and American history. As a Woodrow Wilson Scholar at Columbia University, she then studied for a Masters degree in European history and wrote her thesis on the “Mouvement Republicain Populaire and the Franco Vietnamese War, 1946-1954.” In 1972, Judith completed her doctoral studies at Columbia University after writing her dissertation on “The Politics of Ethnic Pressure: The American Jewish Committee Fight Against Immigration Restriction: 1906-1917.” This work was the beginning of a sustained concentration on immigration and diversity in America and Europe. She then continued to work at Columbia University over 10 years by focusing on an oral history project on Ethnic Groups and American Foreign Policy.

In the late 1980s, she began to write a book on the integration of Jewish immigrants in Maine which William Morrow published in 1992. Subsequently, she worked as the Executive Director of Thanks To Scandinavia, started by the Danish pianist Victor Borge to acknowledge Scandinavians who resisted Nazism and protected Jews during the Second World War. In 1997, Judith founded Humanity in Action and began to serve as its Executive Director. She also has an abiding interest in conservation and landscape design and history, especially as it relates to Maine and Mt. Desert Island.
As in society at large, also in Humanity in Action’s educational programs, and in other ventures of the Humanity in Action community, situations that are in violation of the organization’s code of conduct can arise. Humanity in Action The Netherlands has established a designated point of contact to serve members of the Humanity in Action Network, including the Fellows of this program, who experience abusive, racist, sexist, homophobic, or other forms of discriminatory behavior that emanate from other members of the network. While Humanity in Action staff is at the Fellows’ full disposal to support victims of any incidents of such kind, a designated board member is additionally available via phone or e-mail as it might in some situations be more comfortable to confide in someone who has a greater distance from Humanity in Action programming or any parties involved in such incidents.

Lenka Hora Adema is our Ombudsperson, our designated point of contact to serve members of the Humanity in Action network, including Fellows of this program, who experience abusive, racist, sexist, homophobic, or other forms of discriminatory behavior that emanate from other members of the network. She will listen closely to anyone affected and will advise on a confidential basis. Where necessary, and only after consulting with the affected person, the Ombudsperson may choose to involve another person from the Board and/or involve another professional to work on the case. Read more about Lenka via our website.
Introduction to the Theme

The overarching theme of the 2021 Amsterdam Fellowship is “Understanding the Dutch: Bridging Past and Present to Foster Solidarity.” Inspired by the global BLM protests of 2020, we acknowledge that the fight against institutional racism and exclusion of marginalized groups can only be successful if we show empathy and solidarity to all. It is therefore imperative that we know our history and local context to foster an inclusive future. The Fellowship virtual kickoff is divided into the following phases:

WEEK 1 - Building a Community and Our Global Shared History

The first week of the Fellowship is focused on getting to know each other and making agreements about our virtual collaboration. The virtual program offers the possibility to spend the introduction days with the Amsterdam Fellowship cohort as well as with the entire international Fellow cohort.

After the initial introductions, all Fellows jointly start the international program by reflecting on the current status of the COVID-19 pandemic and a year after the global #BLM protests. Furthermore, the Fellows will dive into our shared Colonial History, the Second World War, and the Shoah from an international perspective. The Humanity in Action team is well-aware of just how challenging the process of collaborative learning can be, in particular virtually. Throughout the virtual kickoff program of the Fellowship, we have scheduled Fellow Discussions as daily group conversations, facilitated by our staff. On several occasions we have organized team building activities and the staff will schedule individual check-ins with the Fellows.
WEEK 2 - Our Shared National History
In the second week, the program continues to examine the Dutch historical context in more detail. Through webinars, film screenings of, and virtual tours at, amongst others, the Anne Frank House and the Rijksmuseum, the Fellows delve into the history of the Second World War and the Holocaust. Additionally, they further explore the history of the Dutch Colonialism in Indonesia, as well as the history of class, labor and migration to the Netherlands. We finalize the first week of national programming with the history of the Women's movement in the Netherlands.

WEEK 3 - Contemporary Social Injustices
In the third week, the attention of the curriculum shifts to contemporary social injustices in the Netherlands. Fellows are given the opportunity to engage in constructive and critical dialogue with front runners from different disciplines; individuals and collectives who are committed to an inclusive Dutch society.

The program continues to build further on the basic fundamentals of intersectionality that we have discussed during the International opening. We then explore the following sub-themes - all addressed in light of the COVID-19 pandemic:

- Gender and the LGBTQIA+ movement in the Netherlands;
- Racism, ethnicity, and religion: Solidarity between marginalized communities;
- Social change through law: The case of the climate justice movement.

WEEK 4 - International Closing
During the last days of the virtual international program, all Fellows and teams come together again to present - and reflect on - their experiences during the national programs. Also, the Fellows will be prepared to apply what they have learned through an Action Project. On the last day, there will be a closing keynote by no one other than Rev. Cornell Brooks.
Program Structure

The 2021 Fellowships kick-off starts with a virtual program of four weeks. There are four hours of programming per day and sufficient rest moments. Because of the different time zones, Fellows come together between 10:00 and 14:00 (EDT)/16:00 and 20:00 (CEST). The virtual program consists of:

- Sessions for the entire international 2021 - Fellows cohort;
  Opening and closing sessions on topics of common interest such as the current state of the COVID-19 pandemic, intersectionality, the Colonial Era, the Second World War, and the Shoa

- Sessions for the national Fellowship cohorts;
  To address country-specific themes ranging from lectures to games and from virtual museum tours to film screenings

- Breakout sessions with groups of national Fellow cohorts;
  To build a community

- Public virtual live events with top speakers.

Each program thus provides a virtual hybrid curriculum to explore the international and national historical and cultural context in which challenges to pluralism and democracy occur.

The programs are interdisciplinary, collaborative, and engaging learning experiences; they feature lectures and discussions/dialogues with researchers, journalists, politicians, activists, and artists and many other changemakers.
The goal of these programs is to foster cross-cultural understanding and an appreciation of different perspectives and approaches to assess past and contemporary social justice. After the four-week virtual hybrid program, Fellows will attend the Action Labs which will be in support of the development and implementation of their Action Projects to address social justice issues in their own communities.

>> Fellow Engagement & Action

Humanity in Action The Netherlands pays close attention to supporting Fellows so that they can get into action, apply their acquired skills and knowledge, and give back to their communities. The personal contributions of the Fellows are invaluable to the learning experience that the Fellowship offers. Therefore, throughout the program, the Fellows are asked to contribute both individually and as a group.

INTERSACTIONALITY, SOLIDARITY & ALLYSHIP

“There is no such thing as a single-issue struggle because we do not live single-issue lives.”

Audre Lorde

Intersectionality and allyship are highly interconnected. We wish for all of us to learn from each other about those connections. Sharing good activist practices, identifying and learning from our own blindspots will guide the conversations in breakout rooms.

INTERNATIONAL GATHERING #2

COUNTRY PRESENTATIONS - LESSONS LEARNED

The 2021 Humanity in Action Fellowships are drawing to a close. But this is not a goodbye. It’s welcome to the network. It’s time to look ahead! The three coming days mark the beginning of the Action Project period and your future engagement as members of our community. We will embark on this journey together by recapping what you’ve learned, discussed, been frustrated with, rejoiced over for the past three weeks. This is your time to show and tell (and show off). We will dive into our Action Project Labs and what you can expect from the fall and winter sessions. Finally, on June 23, we will end this first intense part of your year-long fellowship engagement in a celebratory fashion. Let the real change-making begin!

SPEAKERS INTERNATIONAL PROGRAM 2021
Kali-Ahset Amen is the John Lewis Fellowship Program Director of Humanity in Action. She holds a B.A. in African Studies (Columbia University), a Ph.D. in Sociology (Emory University) and a graduate certificate in Museum Studies (Harvard University). She is an Assistant Professor of Sociology at Johns Hopkins University and Associate Editor of City & Community, the urban section journal of the American Sociological Association. Kali-Ahset’s scholarship and intellectual activism focus on black subjectivities and citizenship inequality in Central America and the U.S. South. She has received multiple fellowships in support of her research, including most recently, a 2018 Beinecke Library Postdoctoral Fellowship from Yale University. Previously, Kali-Ahset was Associate Director of the James Weldon Johnson Institute for the Study of Race and Difference at Emory University and served on the faculty of Emory’s Master’s program in International Development Practice. Beyond the academy, Kali-Ahset has worked as a policy researcher, award-winning radio journalist and exhibition curator for libraries and museums.

Alexander Busold
Humanity in Action Senior Fellow (2017 Berlin Fellowship)

Alexander works as a Program Manager for a civil society organization committed to strengthening democratic spaces and minority rights. Before, he worked in the private sector as a consultant and entrepreneur, as well as teaching university seminars on political economy. Alexander is the founder of the Her.Tietz initiative, which developed out of his Action Project. The Her.Tietz initiative is committed to a transparent and open handling of the Nazi history of Hertie, to an active commemoration of the victims of the Shoah, and to fight the growing Antisemitism today. Furthermore, Alexander founded a sponsorship program for refugees funded by the Avicenna Foundation. He is an alumnus of the German Academic Scholarship Foundation and studied public policy, economics and management at the Hertie School and at Zeppelin Universität in Germany, India and Argentina.

Emma Harjadi Herman is Head of Education and Inclusion at Stedelijk Museum Amsterdam. Bringing the voices of artists and activists to a wider audience is a constant theme in her endeavours, both professional and voluntary. Prior to joining the Stedelijk, Emma worked for global feminist fund Mama Cash, the Dutch and European civil service and several non-profits. Emma was a Fellow in the Amsterdam program of 2006 and has continued to draw inspiration and friendships from Humanity in Action through the years. Emma has lived and worked in New York, Paris, Cotonou and Brussels. She is now back in her hometown Amsterdam where she lives with her partner and two children.

KERIM HODŽIĆ
Humanity in Action Senior Fellow (2020 John Lewis Fellowship)

Born and raised in Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kerim Hodžić currently studies marketing management at the School of Economics and Business Sarajevo. As a member of NGOs such as the Youth Initiative for Human Rights (Bosnia) which strives to heal post-conflict societies through intentional and inclusive dialogue, Kerim seeks to address and raise awareness about human rights inequalities through innovative and creative ways. Kerim organized a project known as “Paint your Culture” where he hosted workshops on human rights and utilized street art to encourage expression. In his spare time, Kerim paints and volunteers in local humanitarian non-profit organisations. After obtaining his Bachelor’s degree, Kerim plans to pursue an MSc in product design and marketing management.

HIEU HANH HOANG TRAN
Humanity in Action Senior Fellow (2019 John Lewis Fellowship)

Hoang Tran Hieu Hanh (Hany) is a Berlin based community activist who worked with stateless communities in Malaysia and Cambodia/Vietnam. As a reaction to the COVID-19 pandemic, Hany co-initiated a group for the Asian Diaspora of Europe with the aim of virtually connecting with one another by hosting artist and community talks on the notions of home, mobility, and the politics of care. As a panelist at the Women+ of Colour Europe Conference, she spoke about the future of female+ identified activism, the sense of solidarity and conflicting interests in Communities of Colour. As part of the Misplaced Women project, Hany organised a collaborative intervention with large mirrors in Berlin’s underground confronting the practice of manspreading, and was also an active performer in Berlin’s theatre scene. She worked at MSO inklusiv!, a project overseen by the Migration Council Berlin, that applies an intersectional concept for enhancing visibility and promoting sexual/gender diversity in self-organised migrant associations. Currently, she works as a consultant on migration, environment and climate change.

AASTHA KC
Humanity in Action Senior Fellow (2020 Copenhagen Fellowship)

Born and raised in Kathmandu, Nepal, Aastha is currently residing in Malmo, Sweden. Her academic background is in human rights studies specializing in anti-discrimination laws. She is currently pursuing a Master’s of Science programme in Sociology of Law at Lund University also with a focus on human rights and the socio-legal implications of anti-discrimination laws. She is currently engaged with Copenhagen 2021 as their human rights intern for the LGBTI+ event combining WorldPride, EuroGames, an arts and culture program and LGBTI+ human rights forum happening between 12-22 August 2021 in Copenhagen.

KATARZYNA KORYTOWSKA
Humanity in Action Senior Fellow (2018 Berlin Fellowship) & board member HER Docs

Katarzyna Korytowska is a co-organizer and one of the originators of HER Docs Film Festival, the first documentary film festival in Poland (and one of few such festivals in general) which celebrates documentaries directed by women. Her practices revolve around interdisciplinary forms of activism and initiating collective situations in favour of egalitarian world free from divisions. She’s currently studying at postgraduate Gender Studies. Co-founder and program curator of the Synergia collective, which organizes a Warsaw cycle of interdisciplinary, socially aware musical events. Katarzyna is also actively involved in the community Radio Kapital. Scholarship holder of the Humanity in Action foundation in Berlin. She gained experience in the field of cultural education and project management at the education department of the Museum of Modern Art in Warsaw and at the Department of Visual Culture Management at the Academy of Fine Arts in Warsaw. Professionally, she composes perfumes and her job is about responding to other people’s needs and assisting them in discovering their olfactory preferences.

ZUZANNA KRZĄTAŁA
Projects Coordinator at HIA & Humanity in Action Senior Fellow (2019 Warsaw Fellowship)

Zuzanna Krzątała is a Warsaw-based activist and feminist advocating for reproductive rights and gender equality. She is a graduate of the New School for Social Research in New York and a Fellow at Zolberg Institute on Migration and Mobility. She gained her experience in the third sector at the International Rescue Committee, a global relief agency, where she worked directly for president David Miliband, former British Foreign Secretary. She was involved in drafting a feminist humanitarian policy, which addressed sexual and gender-based violence in conflict and humanitarian settings. Through her fieldwork with refugees in Rwanda, Jordan, and the Greek island of Lesbos, she focused on women-empowerment initiatives. She lived and worked in New York for over a decade, where she advocated for labor rights of fashion models and protection from sexual harassment in the workplace with an organization Model Alliance. In 2018 it was successful in passing the Stop Sexual Harassment Act, which was signed into law by NYC Mayor Bill de Blasio. At the height of the #MeToo movement, she was involved in the investigative report from The Boston Globe’s Spotlight team that shed light on the abuses in the fashion industry.

Since her return to Poland in 2019, she has been involved in numerous social initiatives, from a campaign promoting HIV testing with the Social Education Foundation to advocating and fundraising for the Women’s Rights Centre together with Wysockie Obcasy Foundation, a prominent feminist newspaper. Her journey with Humanity in Action began in 2019 as a Warsaw Fellow. In her current role at HIA Poland, she is responsible for communication and project coordination.
NITZAN MENAGEM
Humanity in Action
Senior Fellow (2020
Warsaw Fellowship)

Nitzan Menagem is a pedagogical coordinator, trainer and speaker for social activism, specializing in political participation, conflict resolution and the prevention and impact of Gender Based Violence in intercultural settings. Based in Berlin, Nitzan is a humanist and a feminist, taking part in different emancipatory groups. Nitzan has served as representative in the student union of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, while coordinating the Jewish-Arab coalition “Campus4All”, and has been long involved in the peace project Willy Brandt Center Jerusalem. Since 2020 Nitzan is the chairperson of Hashomer Hatzair Germany, a progressive Jewish youth movement, which was re-established in 2012 after being prohibited during the Second World War. She is the founder and director of ROSBOT, a non-confessional and multicultural initiative, promoting “Fearless Education for a Hopeful Future”, concentrating on political education for educators and youth workers.

GILBERTO MORISHAW
Humanity in Action Senior Fellow (2019 John Lewis Fellowship)

Gilberto, born in Curacao and currently living in the city of The Hague is a Master’s student of Public Administration at Leiden University. This past year he launched a thinktank about food security in the Dutch Caribbean for the Dutch ministry of Agriculture. He also launched the Democratic Innovator’s network together with the US Embassy. He is a Global Shaper of the World Economic Forum where he is leading a project on inclusion. Furthermore he is an Ambassador for the African Caribbean Pacific Young Professionals Network where he focuses on fighting inequities. He also co-founded his own political party in the Hague and was also president of a student-party. Next to all of this he also sings, plays the piano, does poetry and gives workshops about improvisation and project management and is launching his own consulting company on the Future of Work.

ALOK-VAID MENON
Artist & Humanity in Action
Senior Fellow (2011
Amsterdam Fellowship)

Alok (they/them) is a gender non-conforming writer and performance artist. Their distinctive style and poetic challenge to the gender binary have been internationally renowned. As a mixed-media artist Alok uses poetry, prose, comedy, performance, lecture, fashion design, and portraiture to explore themes of gender, race, trauma, belonging, and the human condition. They are the author of Femme in Public (2017) and Beyond the Gender Binary (2020). In 2019 they were honored as one of NBC’s Pride 50 and Out Magazine’s OUT 100. They have presented their work at 500 venues in more than 40 countries. They were a Humanity in Action Fellow (2011) in Amsterdam.

LISA NUSSY
Humanity in Action Senior Fellow (2019 Amsterdam Fellowship)

Lisa is born and raised in Castricum, the Netherlands. She studied Public Administration & Organization Sciences at Vrije Universiteit (VU) in Amsterdam, went abroad for a semester in Istanbul, and took two years in between studies to work and travel solo throughout Central America. Two years ago she started the Master Culture, Organization & Management program at VU again, and went to Central Java, Indonesia, for her master’s research on Ecofeminism in the Batik industry. She has volunteered for Amnesty International for several years and has a passion for activism against racism and for gender equality. Recently she started volunteering for Bij1, a newly found political party which stands for radical equality and economic justice. Bij1 is led by Sylvana Simons, a black woman and inspiration to Lisa. She also joined the Decolonization Network Former Dutch-Indies and has learned a lot about her own Javanese-Moluccan roots and how to decolonize the world.

SARA OSMAN
Humanity in Action Senior Fellow (2017 John Lewis Fellowship)

Sara Osman is currently a law student pursuing her J.D. at Berkeley Law. Sara is from Minneapolis, Minnesota and she is a product of the thriving Somali community in the city. She is a graduate of the University of Minnesota where she studied African American/African Studies and Global Studies with a concentration on human rights in sub-Saharan Africa. Through her time as a local community organizer, she has worked on issues relating to immigration, governmental surveillance, and Islamophobia. In law school, she has been recently selected as a 2021 fellow by the Human Rights Center at Berkeley Law and is also the incoming editor-in-chief of the Berkeley Journal of Middle Eastern and Islamic Law. Sara hopes to use her legal education to serve her community and is interested in topics relating to international human rights and migration.

LIEVNATH FABER
2020 Landecker Fellow & Cultural Programmer

Lievnath Faber is a Jewish scholar and programmer with a Friesian father and an Israeli mother of Tunisian and Egyptian descent. She is also a birth and death doula and advocates for bringing these lifecycle events back into communities. She holds a master’s degree in Film Studies from the University of Amsterdam and is a facilitator for the Paradigm Project at the Paideia European Institute for Jewish Studies in Stockholm. She works on the intersections of Jewish culture and heritage, lifecycle and community, and cinema. Currently, Lievnath works on co-creating a Jewish hub, Oy Vey, in the city center of Amsterdam, right in the middle of the former Jewish quarter. This open, inclusive, and unapologetically Jewish hub aims to provide a safe and creative space for Jews and non-Jews to express, enjoy, celebrate, co-create, remember, and relate to cultural tradition and heritage.
She believes this to be essential for honest, civic, creative, and nurturing discourse as well as for the well-being of the community and for actively fighting Antisemitism. She strives to create a local space that is inclusive of all who wish to engage with, learn about, and experience the rich and diverse global Jewish culture.

FELLOWSHIP
IMTINEN ABIDI

Imtinen Abidi has a Masters degree in Public Policies from UPEC (Université-Paris-Est- Créteil) and in Global Politics and Euro-Mediterranean Studies from the University of Catania. During her studies, she volunteered in several organizations, travelled to various countries and gained intercultural experience. She currently works as a communication officer for an NGO empowering young people. She was selected in February 2021 to participate in the #DiasporaVote programme and is working with her team on an own initiative called ‘The role of culture, education, media and sport in the fight against racism’. Her passion for humanities and sensitivity to social and cultural issues has had an impact on her academic background. She hopes to work on projects aiming to create a better understanding between the European Union and its Southern neighbours. In her spare time, she enjoys learning new languages and discussing politics and history.

As a social scientist and activist, Fakiha believes in the power of academia to produce knowledge and hopes to translate this to influence policy actions that can reach all levels of society - the connected and the disconnected. With her involvement in the Humanity in Action program, she hopes to create tangible actions that will directly benefit others by bridging the gap between research and practice.

EDRIÈËNNA BRANDAO (E3)

Edrieënna (E3) is a speaker and humanitarian with familial and cultural ties to St. Eustatius and Curacao. Her love of justice, discourse and academia form the foundation of her activism and community development. This drives her work as a social work teacher, advisory member of the UNESCO committee and student coach to BIPOC/Afro-Caribbean students studying in the Netherlands. As a young professional embarking further into the world of academia and social activism, E3 aims to one day be a champion for the causes that are close to the hearts of the most marginalized in our communities. Her most recent endeavor, sprouting from insights she gained doing research for her bachelor thesis, focuses on a community-based approach to promoting study success amongst students from the ABCSSS islands.

FAKIHA AHMED

Born in The Hague, with her roots in Somalia, the place of birth of her parents, Fakiha Ahmed is a firm believer in the resilience of people and has always felt a deep responsibility to uplift communities that are often underrepresented, overlooked or excluded. She has developed a particular focus on women’s rights, peacebuilding and democratic governance.
DAIKIRA BROWN-TURNER

Daikira Brown-Turner is a journalist, activist, and storyteller. As native of Chicago’s Southside, Daikira has a passion for being a voice for the voiceless and discovering unique perspectives for her audience. Daikira has dreams of writing for news publications such as the New York Times and the Washington Post or reporting for ABC World News. In the future, she aspires to start her own digital media company to showcase the authentic perspective of people of color.

MAYUKH DATTA

Mayukh Datta is a junior at Mississippi State University studying Chemical Engineering with a minor in Environmental Economics. At Mississippi State, Mayukh is the founder of the Climate Reality Project Chapter, an organization that advocates for climate equity in Mississippi. He is also the founder and Director of Feeding the Future Mississippi, a nonprofit that combats food insecurity in the Mississippi Delta. He hopes to attend graduate school for environmental economics so that he can return to Mississippi to focus on environmental justice advocacy.

IOANNIS CHATZIIOSIF

Born and raised in Athens, Greece, Ioannis (Yannis) Chatziiosif recently received his BA in International and European Studies. He is currently attending a postgraduate program in Human Rights at the University of Glasgow. His research interests have been largely oriented towards gender relations and the domain of power relations within society. One of his ambitions growing up was to travel around the world. So far, he has lived in several European countries in his attempt to gain professional experience and familiarize himself with new cultures. His interest in politics led him to accept two internship positions within the diplomatic bodies of Greece and Belgium. For now, he wishes to focus on the Human Rights realm. The Humanity in Action Fellowship will be a great opportunity for Yannis to develop his ideas on social justice as a separate aspect of the discourse on Civil and Political Rights.

KACEY FANG

Kacey Fang is a MSc student at Oxford, where she studies the relationship between depression and suicidal behavior among psychiatric inpatients in China. Her work builds on independent research she conducted in China while on a Yale fellowship. Kacey graduated from Yale with degrees in History and Cognitive Science. Her theses investigated the xenophobic roots of US drug policy as well as the relationship between loneliness and age-related changes in the brain. Kacey also spent a semester studying public health in Vietnam, South Africa, and Argentina and intends to spend the next year studying refugee health in Malaysia on a Fulbright grant.
Outside of school, she tutors low-income immigrant youth, performed in a slam poetry group, and led health equity initiatives in New Haven. She is passionate about the intersection of health equity, migration, and social justice and hopes to continue working with refugee and immigrant populations in the future.

LOTTE GEBOERS

Lotte is a Dutch graduate, passionate about issues that require an interdisciplinary approach, such as climate change, discrimination, mental health and a sustainable society. She is currently participating in multiple training programs related to sustainability consultancy and sustainable entrepreneurship.

Lotte has a BA in Liberal Arts & Sciences (2017) with a major in International Studies & Conflict Studies from Utrecht University and a Research Master African Studies (2019) from Leiden University. During her studies, she was able to go abroad multiple times, including for an exchange semester in Australia and as co-producer of a documentary in Israel. For her master’s thesis she did fieldwork in Mauritius on the empowerment of female entrepreneurs. Next to her studies, she has volunteered for multiple (local and international) NGOs.

He received a BA in Design from the Utrecht School of the Arts and a MA from the Netherlands Film Academy. Equipped with a critical mind he reflects upon the conjunction between society, identity, technology, and media. From there a process unfolds in which he challenges himself to question assumptions, deconstruct universal understandings, and check his privileges in order to dismantle unconscious prejudices. This process is strongly informed by his experience of diverse (family) histories. It does not only permeate into his artistic activities on media, graphic design, filmmaking but also his different engagements into community, his care-work, and parenthood. At the moment, he develops a project based upon his research in Virtual Reality and the experience of discrimination, exclusion, and repression in a community in Amsterdam.

SPENCER GOLDBERG

Spencer Goldberg is a rising fourth-year student at the University of Virginia double majoring in Political & Social Thought and Philosophy. Born in central New Jersey to Jewish parents, Spencer attended a science and engineering magnet program for high school before finding a passion for politics and applied ethics. In Charlottesville, Spencer spends much of his time engaged in historical education, pointing out the paradoxes in America’s founding and showing how the legacies of history continue to inhabit our landscape. Beyond leading an organization that gives historical tours of the University of Virginia, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, Spencer has given tours of Monticello, the historic home and primary plantation of Thomas Jefferson, and a local African American Heritage Center.

JAN-TIMO GESCHWILL

From the personal to the political. Born in Germany and currently living in Amsterdam, Timo is an artist, artistic researcher and filmmaker.

She has volunteered with several associations: the Association of Students of Electrical Engineering of Europe (EESTEC LC Sarajevo), the Association of Students of the Faculty of Electrical Engineering Steleks Sarajevo, where she is an alumni member, and the Association Ruku na srce, where she is an active member. Currently, Hana is working with children on various projects in the Association Ruku na srce. In her free time, she learns about human rights, domestic violence, and is mostly interested in the issue of peer violence.

MEDINA MAHMIĆ

Medina Mahmić graduated with a BA in Economics and is planning on applying to Master’s programs in the field of Management. She is a former Erasmus exchange student and had the chance to experience dynamic way of life and studying. She is a reliable and responsible person willing to learn and improve her skills. She currently works in finance and accounting, and realized that they do not bring her as much joy as management does.

She also always finds it important to have something that motivates her and makes her happy. That is why she participates in various sport activities in her free time such as Bootcamp training and dance. She enjoys taking long walks and hiking. She loves to escape reality by reading good books with warm cup of coffee. Medina hopes that one day she will build a career where she can be the best version of herself in life and business and along with that to help people.

ACHRAF MANAR

Achraf Manar is one of the organizers of the youth-led group Different Leaders, which aims to promote responsible, inclusive and sustainable leadership, and influence decision-makers towards building equitable and sustainable policies. Having grown up in both urban and rural working-class neighborhoods in France, Achraf was exposed to inequalities that fueled his need to be committed to the service of a society. He became a student representative, to defend the interests of nearly 35,000 students. Engaged in the non-profit Article 1, (France’s largest equal opportunity organization), he helped organize a consultation of french young people leading to 17 proposals against inequalities within the 2019 Youth 7 summit, and presented to french ministers. He contributed also to organize 3 editions of the International Day of Equal Opportunities in more than ten countries, to help his cadets in their academic and professional paths and raise awareness about equality of opportunities.
The intersections between culture, media, politics, and philosophy are of particular interest to her and she occasionally writes about these topics for PanDam magazine. Her involvement with various student groups of Amnesty International and working on the World Talks project of Stichting URGENT, creating a digital database of interviews with activists, has inspired her to continuously reflect on human rights, social justice, and decolonization. For Nina, “the personal is political”; she is currently figuring out her journey, with a focus on social epistemology, international relations, and queer studies and community.

ELISE PÜTZ

Elise Pütz is a 24-year old law graduate. She holds a Bachelor’s degree in Dutch Law, a Minor in Criminology and a Master’s degree in Public International Law from Utrecht University. During her master’s degree she specialized in Human Rights Law. Her passion for human rights and her international mindset is also expressed through her volunteering at organisations dealing with issues such as integration and nature conservation. She has also done committee work for the Erasmus Student Network in Utrecht. In her free time, Elise is passionate about artistic gymnastics. She is a national judge and practices gymnastics at the association where she is also a former president and committee member. Other interests include women’s rights, politics, solo-travel and pop-culture. Currently, Elise works at the Utrecht regional Health Organisation as part of the COVID-19 response Department. In the future, she aspires to start a career in Human Rights Law.

LEFKOTHEA RIZOPOULOU

Born and raised in a conservative Greek province, Lefkothea has been always inquisitive about human rights and social justice. Her passion was to raise challenges for breaking cycles and taboos. She moved to Athens, where she completed her BA studies in Social Work. Lefkothea’s experience in grassroots movements and collective, solidarity actions in regards to refugee topic/immigration policies, and gender-based violence influenced her both personally and professionally. She served as social worker in shelters for unaccompanied asylum-seeking minors in Greece. Anti-oppressive practices, critical reflection, and intersectionality are at the core of her work. Adapting Simons de Beauvoir’s quote “To name means to reveal and to reveal means that one is already acting”, she continues defending social justice. Lefkothea aims to hold a Master’s degree in “Social work as a Human Rights profession” and to focus on critical research.

NINA REIS

Nina Reis is a German student and aspiring advocate and writer. Besides pursuing her Bachelor’s degree in Philosophy, Politics, and Economics in Amsterdam, she currently works on providing public, alternative education by curating an online archive and facilitating events, such as an online conversation on intersectionality, mental health, or fat liberation, and curating an art show, for YOUth ACT.

DONOVAN WILLIAMS

Born and raised in Bronx, New York, Donovan received his BA in Philosophy from John Jay College of Criminal Justice in 2019. Having a keen interest in challenging human rights and criminal justice issues, Donovan taught incarcerated individuals competitive debate as a volunteer for Rikers Debate Project, took part in grassroots canvassing for Amnesty International, and organized an event on his school’s campus calling for an end to solitary confinement in state prisons. He has also done preliminary research focused on identifying racial disparities in policing as a research assistant for the Center for Policing Equity, and assisted with civic-engagement and social justice projects as an intern for FPWA, including drafting city-wide police reforms. Donovan’s work is driven by a vision of a society free of systems that punish and oppress marginalized groups, which is why he’s pursuing a Master’s degree in Public Policy to spearhead policies that promote structural equity.

LILIAN WRIGHT

Lily Wright is a third-year student studying English & French. Passionate about immigration and the Appalachian identity, Lily is pursuing an independent oral history project that seeks to amplify disenfranchised immigrant narratives in West Virginia, her home state. The project is set for completion in Spring 2022 and will partner with the West Virginia ACLU.

Previously, she contributed research to a work entitled "The Criminal Body: Italian Racialization and Erasure in the Dime Novel" which explores the depictions and language surrounding Italian immigrants in the 19th century dime novel. She also volunteers with local immigration specialists, assisting in programming for undocumented West Virginia residents and international students. As a product of the humanities, Lily is fascinated by the intersection of arts and activism, and her belief is that telling a story is one of the most powerful ways to spark empathy and a grassroots movement.

Besides his studies, he created the Campus branch of Oy Vey, an organization that connects people, ideas, and different expressions of contemporary Jewish culture regardless of religious denominations by providing a vibrant, progressive, and inclusive environment for university students. His research interests include religious polarization, forms of contemporary political anti-Semitism, and the history of political thought.
AMSTERDAM TEAM
MARIE-LOUISE BEEKMANS
Intern Communications

Marie-Louise is a recent graduate from Maastricht University with a BA in Liberal Arts & Sciences. She majored in Sociology and Diversity Studies and more specifically commits herself to the critical study of social issues in their construction, deconstruction, and reconstruction. During her studies she had the opportunity to go on exchange to the United States where she pursued a minor in Africana & Women’s Studies. For her bachelor’s thesis she conducted qualitative research on how to expand Afro-Dutch Studies within Dutch Higher Education most effectively and meaningfully. Next to her studies, Marie-Louise is active within various anti-racist and feminist organizations such as Maastricht kan het, Zuid-Limburg BIJ1 and Wonda Women.

LUIZA BRAGA
Communications & Community Officer

Luiza has a bachelor’s degree in Journalism from the University of Houston and a master’s degree in Multimodal Communication from the Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam. Since 2018, Luiza has dedicated her Communications expertise to non-profit organizations seeking social change. Volunteering, education, and media fairness are some of the causes she has embraced through her work.

LAURA LASANCE
Executive Director

Laura is a strong advocate for the empowerment of youth to contribute to positive change, social justice, and sustainable development. Over the last decade, she has gained comprehensive experience in managing organizations and projects in the fields of human rights, advocacy, children and youth leadership across the globe. She has expertise in fostering leadership among highly diverse teams of (young) professionals. Laura worked at the Centre for Conflict Studies (Utrecht University), at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of The Netherlands, and served as Executive Director of CHOICE for Youth and Sexuality. She successfully developed the collective advocacy platform of the International Children’s Peace Prize winners. Laura served as Supervisory Board member of dance4life international and is Chair to the United Network of Young Peacebuilders. Laura has a Masters degree (cum laude) in Conflict Studies and Human Rights (Utrecht University).

RAISSA BIEKMAN
Program Manager

Raissa Biekman holds a bachelor’s and a master’s degree in Political Science, and a masters degree in Public Administration. She specializes in International Relations. After her graduation in 2013, Raissa worked in higher education in Surinam as a lecturer and education coordinator. Her passion for international social issues has always been a common thread in her career. In the past, Raissa also served as a moderator for local political events, delegation visits from international organizations, such as the International Monetary Fund, and international conferences. In addition, she worked as a consultant and political analyst for local media (STVS) and international organizations.
Wessel is dedicated to building safe, inclusive and resilient societies by supporting motivated individuals to contribute to peace, justice and strong institutions. Over the last decade, Wessel has gained professional experience in research, program management and communications on security, development and humanitarian affairs in Sub-Saharan Africa and the MENA region. His expertise lies in skills development, personal effectiveness and capacity building for organizations and practitioners in the fields of peacebuilding, conflict prevention and the rule of law.

Wietze is a third-year Communication and Information Sciences student at the University of Utrecht. Before starting his studies he wrote about the emergence of populism in Europe and the United States for his high school graduation research project. For his Bachelor’s minor, Wietze focused on History and International Relations. This minor provided him with the theoretical and analytical tools to link history and human rights to current issues regarding digitization, polarisation, and unrest. As such, he for example analyzed the Dutch parliamentary motives for military interventions in Indonesia between 1945-1950, the British abolition of slavery, and speeches from extremist leaders in current-day contexts. Next to volunteer experience in event organizations and external relations, Wietze was also involved with a search engine scale-up in Utrecht.

Beyond the Fellowship

LETTER TO THE BOARD

Apart from the obligation to implement your Action Project, Humanity in Action expects you to evaluate the program by:

‣ Contributing to the project evaluation (sharing your observations in a constructive manner, completing the evaluation survey, etc.)

‣ Writing a letter to Humanity in Action Board Chairs in which you share your impression of the Fellowship. Please comment on the positive aspects, but also give critical insights on what should be revised. In order for us to improve, we need your honest feedback!

‣ Optional but much appreciated: leaving a short testimonial for external communication purposes.

WHAT ARE ACTION PROJECTS?

As a Humanity in Action Fellow, you get the opportunity to enrich yourself and get empowered through the Fellowship program, the other Fellows and the network as a whole. Applying and spreading your acquired knowledge and skills in an Action Project is a core element of the Fellowship experience; it allows each Fellow to put theory into practice and act for an inclusive society.

ACTION LABS

In addition to the virtual program, we organize a series of ACTION LABS from October 2020 until May 2021 for the Fellows. You will meet bi-weekly for workshops in support of their Action Projects, but also webinars and community building sessions. Each office has an Action Project Mentor who will provide you with individual coaching from September on throughout the entire period of the Fellowship.

To become a Senior Fellow, you must plan and implement an Action Project: a hands-on initiative inspired by your Fellowship experience. Action Projects give you the opportunity to apply what you have learned during the Fellowship and address real-life issues in your own communities.

The projects reflect each Fellow’s unique experience and interests. Action Projects may take many different forms, including community service, public advocacy, art projects, lectures, conferences and social entrepreneurship.

During the 2021 Amsterdam Fellowship, you will get all the information and guidance you need to get prepared and ready to act!
STORIES OF WOMANHOOD
Sophia Blijden & Sharona Badloe (Fellows 2017)

Stories of Womanhood was founded by Sophia Blijden and Sharona Badloe, on the occasion of the Fellowship of 2017. With Stories of Womanhood, they offer performers a platform to share personal stories about "womanhood" through the creative arts (spoken word, theater, poetry, etc.). They want to address (political) discussions where the left is often opposed to the right and offer a way to discuss social issues in an accessible way. In 2019 the fourth and fifth editions took place in Utrecht.

MUSIC & SOCIAL ACTIVISM
Caitlin Schaap (Fellow 2018)

During the 2019 Amsterdam Dance Event, Fellow Caitlin Schaap participated in - and performed at one of the seminars on protest music and social activism. With her creative performance, Caitlin aims to be a voice for the indigenous communities in the Amazon region. The colonial and imperialist domination, the reclamation of natural resources and now climate change are having a profound impact on indigenous communities whose voices have been marginalized for centuries.

REFUGEES AND SOCIAL INCLUSION
Sascha Wijnhoven (Fellow 2018)

To meet, connect and learn from each other: That's what the Travelling Language Café in Utrecht is about. As of March 2018, 13 meetings took place with newcomers, Dutch students and teenagers to explore the Dutch language and society together. Various topics were addressed through play, challenges and interaction.

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN
Lianne Cluistra (Fellow 2018)

The United Nations have declared November 25 as International Day Against Violence Against Women. To raise awareness about this issue, in 2019, several buildings around the world were colored orange. Lianne was involved in this awareness initiative in Haarlem. The South Tower of the St. Bavokerk was colored orange for 16 days. During these days, different women’s women’s rights organizations provided sessions and workshops to end violence against women.
