Since our founding in 1997, Humanity in Action has worked to instill the values of human dignity and moral responsibility for the protection of the rights of minorities in a new generation of social, cultural and political leaders. Inspired by the rescue of the Danish Jews in 1943, Humanity in Action Denmark and the Copenhagen Fellowship represent the very foundation of this work. Since our founding we have educated, inspired and connected more than 2600 young people worldwide.

The Copenhagen Fellowship proudly works to continue this tradition. Yet, over the past 25 years, we have also sought to expand upon our foundations. As new challenges face our democratic societies, so the program develops and redefines itself. Today, the Copenhagen Fellowship explores not only the roots of its own history, but also contemporary human rights issues and concerns affecting minoritised groups. Pedagogically, the Copenhagen Fellowship strives to be a testing ground for new thinking driven by the Fellow dialogue, discussions and disagreements. Through a highly interdisciplinary program, the Fellowship seeks to engage its Fellows in current democratic challenges and inspire them to action - now and in the future.

We would like to express our gratitude to our donors. The Humanity in Action Fellowship in Copenhagen is only possible because of our supporters, who have continually believed in the idea of Humanity in Action. We are deeply thankful to Knud Høigaards Fond, Aage og Johanne Louis-Hansens Fond, Hermod Lannungs Fond, Hoffmann & Husmans Fond, Wistifonden, Politiken-Fonden, Slots- og Kulturstyrelsen, Tuborgfonden, and last but not least Plums Fond for Fred, Økologi og Bæredygtighed for supporting the program, several of these foundations through many years.

We would further like to sincerely thank our host families who - once again - open their homes to many of our Fellows.

At a time of great tension in local, national and international realms - with a war raging in Ukraine, in the reverberations (we hope) of a global pandemic, democracies under pressure and Human Rights threats around the globe - we are proud to welcome yet another cohort of 22 engaged Fellows and to continue our support to pluralistic voices working towards advancing social justice in Denmark and abroad.

Mikaela v. Freiesleben
National Director
Humanity in Action Denmark
For the third year, out of three, the Copenhagen Fellowship will delve into the complex issues of Rigsfællesskabet - the Unity of the Realm - through the lens of Human Rights.

Our aim with this theme is to get emerging leaders and activists from Denmark, Europe and the US involved in - and help shape - the urgent conversations on the future of the Unity of the Realm and the Arctic region; with respect for democracy and Human Rights.

In Denmark, the Unity of the Realm refers to the relationship between Denmark, the Faroe Islands and Greenland, collectively known as The Danish Realm. Since 1380 the Faroe Islands have been under the Crown of Denmark, and Greenland likewise since the Danish-Norwegian priest Hans Egede set food on Greenlandic shores in 1721 - 301 years ago.

Since then, the relationship between Denmark, Greenland and the Faroe Islands has been changing rapidly. The increasing focus on Denmark’s colonial past, climate change, a growing focus on the Arctic region by the world’s super powers, as well as increased political independence are shaping new possibilities for the future of these three countries.

These developments create an urgent need for enlightened democratic conversations. Conversations on how to keep the development in the region sustainable, peaceful, and with respect for Human Rights, democracy, and the rights of the individual.

Yet, many people in Denmark, let alone abroad, know little to nothing about this social and political union and its implications for the people living within it - and for the world!

The 2022 Copenhagen Fellowship will examine the union’s long and complex history from a Human Rights perspective, as well as the union’s place in a globalized world. Thus, the Fellowship deals with the changing nature of globalization, modernity, identity, and democracy.
ABOUT HUMANITY IN ACTION
ABOUT HUMANITY IN ACTION

Humanity in Action is an international non-profit organisation that aims to instill the values of human dignity and moral responsibility in a new generation of social, cultural and political leaders by:

- Engaging student leaders in histories of resistance to institutionalized violations of minority rights in democratic countries;
- Promoting the growth and development of young professionals dedicated to protecting human dignity and the rights of minorities;
- Building a multi-national, intergenerational network of present and emerging leaders in diverse professional fields who share these commitments.

Humanity in Action believes that an important test of a genuine democracy is how it treats its minorities, and that the commitment to democratic values and the protection of minorities cannot be taken for granted in the United States and Europe.

Therefore, Humanity in Action seeks to engage younger generations in histories of resistance and to inspire them to fulfill their moral responsibilities to protect those in danger from institutionalized violations of minority rights.

The intellectual touchstone for Humanity in Action, founded in 1997, has been the study of acts of resistance - and lack thereof - during the Second World War and the Holocaust. These events raise critical questions: Why do some people resist while others remain bystanders? What connects those who recognize the need to resist? How are acts of resistance influenced by national and historical contexts?

ABOUT HUMANITY IN ACTION

DENMARK

Humanity in Action Denmark is an essential part of a collaborative, international learning community of university students and young professionals in Europe and the United States.

We promote values of democracy, pluralism, social justice, and human rights, particularly in Denmark and the transatlantic context, through education and forms of civil engagement shaped by our specific historical and cultural context.

As a small but international organization, we connect carefully selected young leaders of diverse backgrounds and identities to support them in acting socially responsibly through understanding other social groups’ perspectives.

We develop Fellowships, study trips, seminars, workshops, and conferences that challenge contemporary master narratives by looking deeply into some of the histories behind contemporary Danish news headlines.

Together with experts from academia, activism, the arts, journalism, politics, and the business world, our Fellows and Senior Fellows discuss critical social justice issues in Denmark. The topics that keep us busy are identity, human rights, social justice, immigration, and diversity. For years we have created and nourished a community culture that is collaborative, intensive, caring, open to vulnerability, interdisciplinary, opinionated, eclectic, international, and fun.
Dr. Judith S. Goldstein (she/her) received a Bachelors degree from Cornell University in 1962 with a concentration on European and American history. As a Woodrow Wilson Scholar at Columbia University, she then studied for a Masters degree in European history and wrote her thesis on the “Mouvement Républicain Populaire and the Franco-Vietnamese War, 1946-1954.” In 1972, Judith completed her doctoral studies at Columbia University after writing her dissertation on “The Politics of Ethnic Pressure: The American Jewish Committee Fight Against Immigration Restriction: 1906-1917.” This work was the beginning of a sustained concentration on immigration and diversity in America and Europe. She then continued to work at Columbia University over 10 years by focusing on an oral history project on Ethnic Groups and American Foreign Policy.

In the late 1980s, she began to write a book on the integration of Jewish immigrants in Maine which William Morrow published in 1992. Subsequently, she worked as the Executive Director of Thanks To Scandinavia, started by the Danish pianist Victor Borge to acknowledge Scandinavians who resisted Nazism and protected Jews during the Second World War. In 1997, Judith founded Humanity in Action and began to serve as its Executive Director. She also has an abiding interest in conservation and landscape design and history, especially as it relates to Maine and Mt. Desert Island.
PRACTICAL INFORMATION
Getting Ready for the Fellowship
THE INTERNATIONAL OPENING PROGRAM

We are beyond excited to see you soon and to begin this year’s Fellowship! Below you will find important details that you should take note of before June 6, when the Fellowship begins.

Before meeting in person in Copenhagen, all 96 Fellows, from all cohorts, will come together for our Online International Opening Program, June 6 - 8.

The goal of the program is to foster cross-cultural understanding across all Fellowships and an appreciation of different perspectives and approaches for assessing past and contemporary social justice issues.

YOUR WAY AROUND A VIRTUAL FELLOWSHIP

You are all probably advanced zoom users by now, but to ensure productive sessions, we have gathered some information - based on our experience - we hope you will find useful, as well as a few ground rules of engagement during the Virtual Fellowship.

Night Owls or Early Birds

The participants in the International Virtual Program are located around the world. This means that many of us are in different time zones. The Fellowship will be late for some, and early for others.

Despite this, we expect all of you to participate actively in the Fellowship, and gather as much knowledge and experience from this as possible. Remember to join the sessions 10 minutes before its scheduled start to be on top of possible technical problems and/or unstable connections etc.

Be Fully Present (mind & body)

We encourage you to avoid multitasking. You might miss out on key information or an opportunity to give input. Please bear in mind that all sessions are created for YOU! Speakers are there for YOU!

You can make it easier to focus on the meeting by turning off notifications, closing or minimizing running apps, and muting your smartphone.
Screen Name, Pronouns and Fellowship

We will be 100+ fellows, staff, and speakers in one virtual room. Your screen name and program affiliation will help identify you as well as help you identify others.

We also kindly ask you to state your preferred pronouns. Using someone’s correct gender pronouns is one of the most basic ways to show your respect for their identity.

Therefore, please write your name on the screen thus: Name, pronoun (country affiliation), e.g.: Mikaela, she/her (CPH) - Thank you!

Camera On/Off

We encourage you to turn your camera on.

Position your camera in a stable position and focused at eye level. Doing so helps create a more direct sense of engagement with other participants.

GROUND RULES

ARRIVE ON TIME
Please log on 10 minutes before each session of the Pre-Fellowship. You may disrupt the presentation by logging in late as well as miss important information.

APPROPRIATE SETTING
Please make sure your settings are appropriate for e-learning, meaning minimal background noise and other disturbances, e.g. neutral/calm background setting; avoid busy cafés or settings with people/movement in the background.

DRESS APPROPRIATELY
While learning together remotely, take a few minutes to put yourself in the right headspace to be productive by dressing appropriately.

MAKE SURE YOUR MIC IS ON MUTE
To help keep background noise to a minimum, make sure you mute your microphone when you are not speaking. However, don’t forget to unmute your mic when you want to add to the conversation or ask a question.

FOOD
Please use the designated screen breaks to eat or snack, not only is it distracting to others it might also be to you.

CONFIDENTIALITY: DON’T SHARE ZOOM LINKS WITH OUTSIDERS
Unfortunately, zoombombing has become a phenomenon not uncommon to organizations such as our own.

In order not to risk intruders or other unwelcome visitors who may wish to disturb or otherwise disrupt our sessions, do not share zoom links with anyone outside the organisation.
THE IN-PERSON FELLOWSHIP

On June 9 we will all meet in person for the first time. The in-person program will be run by the Humanity in Action Denmark staff consisting of Mikaela v. Freiesleben, National Director, Nina Axelsen, Program Coordinator, Andrew Gibba and Lisa Hoffken, Program Assistants. The four of us will be present throughout the program and will always be available to assist you with anything relating to the program. You can find our contact details at the end of this booklet. We’re looking forward to getting to know all of you better!

Over the next few pages we will share some practical information with you about the program and what to expect. Please also refer to the Fellow Booklet previously send out for more practical information regarding your stay in Copenhagen.

LUNCH AND LOCATIONS

MEALS

Lunch will be provided on all program days, and will be sensitive to your individual dietary restrictions. When at Karens Minde, our main venue, lunch will be served warm and organic. When we are on tour lunch may be sandwiches and the like.

Your are responsible for your own breakfast and dinner. As well as all meals on days without programming. Some host families may provide breakfast and some dinners. Pls refer to the individual host family to arrange meals.

LOCATIONS DURING THE COPENHAGEN FELLOWSHIP

The Copenhagen Fellowship will take place in several different locations in Copenhagen (see list of addresses at the back of this booklet).

Getting to/from Everything

It is your own responsibility to transport yourself to and from our various locations. Fellows coming from abroad will be equipped with a travel card for public transportation. This will not cover all transportation during the Fellowship, only to/from host family and location. Should you have any issues with getting to the locations, you may always contact the staff.
OUR MAIN VENUE:
Karens Minde Kulturhus

Karens Minde Kulturhus (Karen's Memorial Culture House) is the place where we will be spending most of our days. Originally an asylum, the house now serves as a multipurpose space, often rented out as a venue for various events.

Karens Minde Kulturhus is located in Sydhavnen (South Harbour), a district in southern Copenhagen. Sydhavnen is largely a former working class district and a less trodden path in Copenhagen, but has lately seen an architectural boom and now also contains upscale residential areas along the harbour as well as parks and recreational areas.

The place also houses a café and a library as well as green areas for us to work outside - if the weather allows for it - or just relax and hang out. There are even some animals.

Ungdomsøen/Youth Island

June 12-14, the Copenhagen Fellowship will take place at Ungdomsøen (Youth Island), an island located just a short ferry ride from Copenhagen. It is an old sea fortress from 1894. In 2015 it was acquired and donated to the Danish Scout Movement by The A.P. Møller Foundation and the Nordea Foundation. Youth Island aims to strengthen young people in their journey to become active, committed and curious citizens.

Departure and Return

We will depart from Nyhavn no. 71 with Sparshipping on June 12 at 9.00 SHARP!

The boat ride takes app. 30 min. Please let us know if you have any concerns reg. the boat ride. We will return to the same place on June 14 at 15.20.

Ungdommens Demokratihus

The second day of our programme, June 11, we will spend at a youth community house Ungdommens Demokratihus (The Youth Democracy House).
Sleeping Arrangements
We will sleep in dorms of 8-10 people (men and women separately). Each room has its own bath and toilet, pillows, blankets and linens are provided, as well as towels. BUT! bring your own swim-/bathing suit if you want to take a dip in the ocean!

Meals and Drinks
All meals are provided, and we will prepare them together. Menues will be sensitive to your individual dietary restrictions. There is a kiosk on the island where you can buy snacks, water/beer and merchandise. We will also bring some drinks - Please note that we are here to learn, be together and to get to know one another further, so we encourage only light drinking of alcoholic beverages.

Please do not bring alcohol to the Island.

The Great Synagogue and the Jewish Information Centre

June 15 we will visit the Great Synagogue in Copenhagen and the Jewish Information Centre, located next to each other in central Copenhagen. The Great Synagogue is the main synagogue of the Jewish community in Denmark, and was completed in 1833. The Jewish Information Centre was created in 2015 following the terror attack on the Synagogue, to advance knowledge about Jews in Denmark and prevent the spread of antisemitism.

Nordatlantens Brygge
June 20 we will go to Nordatlantens Brygge (the North Atlantic House). This house is an art and cultural center situated in a 16th century warehouse. For more than 200 years the North Atlantic House was the centre of shipping traffic between Denmark and the North Atlantic. These days, other ports serve the North Atlantic market, and the historic warehouse is now a thriving cultural centre, dedicated to the art and culture of Denmark's former North Atlantic colonies: Greenland, the Faroe Islands, and Iceland. You also find the Faroese and Greenlandic Representations, and the Icelandic Embassy in the house.

Kalaallit Illuusaat
Kalaallit Illuusaat (the Greenlandic House) creates a bridge between Denmark and Greenland and is a meeting place for Danish Greenlanders and Greenland-curious people. The house organizes cultural activities and is located in the inner city of Copenhagen. We will visit the Greenlandic house on June 22.
Johan Borups Højskole

Johan Borups Højskole is a folk high school located in the center of Copenhagen. Humanity in Action Denmark has through the years collaborated many times with Johan Borups Højskole on various events and 2022 is no exception. Our Open Event on June 22 is thus a product of this fruitful cooperation, and will be located at the Højskole. We’re looking forward to yet again visiting these beautiful surroundings.

The Danish Workers Museum

The Danish Workers Museum preserves and exhibit the story of the workers movement and the history of working conditions and everyday life in Denmark, dating back to mid/late 1800s. We will visit the museum to explore their exhibition ACTIVIST, and learn about activism in a historical context on June 24.

Roskilde Festival

June 28, the Copenhagen Fellowship will visit the Roskilde Festival for the very first time. The Roskilde Festival is the largest festival in Northern Europe. The first festival took place in 1971, and since 1972, the festival has been 100% non-profit. Another cornerstone of Roskilde Festival is volunteering. About 30,000 people volunteer before, during, and after the festival each year.

The festival is a music festival but has grown to become so much more. Each year there is an extensive focus on art and activism. The Copenhagen Fellowship will participate during the warm-up days (prior to the music programme begins).

In cooperation with Rapolitics (a non-profit organisation working to strengthen self-esteem and political courage among youth, based on hip-hop culture and artistic activism), we will help create awareness on Danish colonial ties to Greenland and indigenous rights in a context of art, activism and human rights.

The last two years the festival has been cancelled due to Covid-19, this means that 2022 will mark the 50th anniversary of the festival. We trust it will be an amazing experience!

CHECK-IN and CHECK-OUT

CHECK IN and CHECK OUT are important components of our everyday schedule which will manifest the beginning and the end of our day. They will usually take around 15 minutes. These are meant to be spaces of transition where we prepare ourselves to either begin or to end our day together. They might sometimes include exercises inspired by meditation or mindfulness, and they are also open for your suggestions on how to start and end our day in a meaningful way. It is also a space for asking short questions regarding the course of the day.

We expect you to be on time and be ready every morning for our check in.

GROUP VALUES

We are in this space together, we are learning together and discussing with one another, sometimes emotional topics close to our hearts. We will begin this Fellowship by exploring our values and determining our group values together. E.g. How do we want to learn together in a respectful manner? What does respect mean to you? And what kind of behaviour supports respectful listening? See below for more thoughts on values.

GROUP DISCUSSIONS

We have set aside time for group discussions on certain days. We will invite you to take turns in leading these discussions. The aim is to provide you with a space to discuss the topics in greater depths beyond what the lectures leave time for. These discussions can also focus on topics you feel we have left out all together from the program or something that you are passionate about and want to explore with your fellow Fellows. This is the space for it. Sign up in the beginning of the program to lead a discussion.

SPEAKER PRESENTATIONS

We would like all of you to introduce a speaker each, before their lecture. Sign up for a speaker in the beginning of the program.

OPEN EVENTS

Some of our events during the Fellowship will be open to the public and friends of Humanity in Action. Please feel free to invite family and friends to these events. Friends and family can sign up to these events in a special form which will be send out separately.
LECTURES

Each day we will have lectures focusing on different aspects of our theme. The lectures will vary in length and style. Some will be more workshop oriented, others will be discussion oriented, but many will also be classical lectures. We have encouraged all of our lecturers to leave good time for Q&A, but in our experience, there is never enough time, hence we have created space for group discussions.

BREATHING SPACE

On the second day of our Fellowship we will introduce and guide you through a short meditation. We call the meditation Breathing Space. This is a simple meditation that restitutes the brain and the body, which can be useful and soothing during the day or after a long day. The meditation can also help increase focus, concentration, and presence. We will offer this meditation daily for those who find it soothing and helpful.

The breathing space will take place every day - when possible - for the last 10 minutes of the lunch break.

ACTION PROJECT WORKSHOP

The Action Project Workshops will help you develop, plan and execute your Action Project. We have 3 workshops of 2 hours to inspire you to go from Passion to Action. At our Senior Fellow ACTION DAY on June 24, all 2022 Fellows will pitch their Action Project idea for the audience. We will provide you with a more detailed description of what an Action Project is or can be, and how to pitch your project. Please read more about Action Projects under the headline: "Turning Knowledge Into Action".

PODCAST PRODUCTION

The Podcast genre is a great medium to enhance reflection and critical engagement. In order to document our learnings and reflections from the themes covered in the Fellowship we will produce a compilation of mini-podcasts in groups of three to four people. You will learn about the technical components of podcast production as well as the storytelling and political aspects of the genre. We will end the Fellowship with a listening party, where we will gather and listen to all your podcasts produced during the Fellowship.
SENIOR FELLOW ACTION DAY
- JUNE 24

This day is a day by senior fellows for senior fellows - and you, the cohort of 2022. It is an afternoon organised by senior fellows for you to get to know them and for them to get to know you, rekindle old friendships, and strengthen the Humanity in Action network. We are inviting all Senior Fellows from the previous 25 years to come, socialise, and listen to your Action Project pitches. We will end the day with a dinner for everyone.

Senior Fellow Action Day will take place on June 24, 2022 at Karens Minde Kulturhus.

PODCAST LISTENING PARTY
AND FAREWELL DINNER -
JUNE 30

On June 30, we will listen to our podcasts together. We are also inviting our host families, board members and other friends of Humanity in Action to come listen and learn. June 30 is also our last day together, ending with a farewell dinner at Karens Minde Kulturhus. Thus, we encourage you to make this last day, as well as the Listening Party, special. We therefore invite you to join in the planning of the Listening Party and dinner. Sign up in the beginning of the Fellowship if you would like to create a magical setting for our podcasts and mark the end of our Fellowship.
CREATING CONSTRUCTIVE DIALOGUE THROUGH COMMON VALUES

GOOD AND CONSTRUCTIVE DIALOGUE

A good, open, and respectful dialogue is crucial for change and therefore crucial for Humanity in Action. Throughout the Fellowship we will work together to achieve good and constructive dialogues.

We communicate with each other all the time, therefore, how we communicate is central to the way we interact as human beings and how we function as a group. Together we will work to create the best possible foundation for good and constructive dialogue and communication - when we agree as well as when we disagree.

But what determines a “good” dialogue or a “good” conversation? A good dialogue and a good conversation can have many forms and we may interpret it in many different ways. Humanity in Action emphasizes an open and inclusive dialogue as an important value in regards to “good” communication.

But what is it to you? In collaboration you will define what good communication means to you, the 2022 Fellowship cohort, and you will create a foundation of common group values.

WHAT ARE VALUES - TO YOU

- Values can be said to be culturally determined perceptions of what is valuable and desirable, and what is not.
- Every human being lives their life on a basis of their own values which have often been determined in an early stage of life.
- Our day to day actions are influenced by our values, often without conscious awareness. These implicit values are shown through our interactions with others.

Values are more often than not implied and not necessarily mentioned explicitly, but show themselves through our opinions and actions. Without the explicit verbilisation, values are expressed through our communication and attitudes towards other people.

This can be expressed in the way we begin and end a conversation, how we listen, how we respond, if we are attentive towards the other person, and finally what words we choose when we speak with each other.

We are curious to know what values you would like to be present during the Fellowship in order to create open and constructive communication. Throughout the Fellowship, we will explore which values are especially important to you and how you would like them to be expressed in the way we communicate with each other.
COVID POLICY

In light of the uncertainties due to COVID-19, our times require a Fellowship format that protects the health and safety of everyone involved to the extent possible and that adheres to the national regulations in Denmark.

Humanity in Action Denmark will at all times adhere to the national authorities regarding rules and regulations concerning COVID-19. We also expect all Fellows to adhere to all rules and regulations as set out by the national authorities. All Fellows as well as all staff, visitors, guest lecturers etc. in the Fellowship Program, are at all times responsible for making sure they adhere to the national guidelines. All Fellows traveling from abroad are expected to familiarize themselves with, and follow, the COVID-19 guidelines for entry into Denmark in force at any given time. Participation in the Humanity in Action Copenhagen Fellowship program is at your own risk.

Humanity in Action cannot be held responsible for any illness incurred during the course of the program.

In addition to the official regulations, we will do our best to co-create a space with you that feels as safe as possible in the given circumstances.

GENERAL PRECAUTIONS DURING THE FELLOWSHIP:

- We will open windows regularly to ensure ventilation.
- We encourage high hand hygiene, and we provide hand sanitizer.
- We will provide masks if needed or wanted.
- We will provide quick tests if needed or wanted.
- We encourage everyone to be sensitive to other's personal boundaries and limits.
- Report to a Humanity in Action staff member immediately if you are coughing/sneezing on a regular basis or show any other COVID-19 symptoms, and avoid close physical contact with anyone.
- Humanity in Action Denmark will provide adequate housing for Fellows tested positive for COVID-19, who are staying with host families, but who may be unable to stay with their family during the time of isolation.

OBS! At the moment there are no COVID-19 restrictions in Denmark. However, there are some general recommendations. You can find them at: https://en.coronasmitte.dk/
CODE OF CONDUCT

Humanity in Action is committed to providing a respectful environment to all those involved in its programs. Fellows, Senior Fellows, Staff, Program Interns and Board Members in all participating countries (collectively, “Network Members”) are ambassadors of Humanity in Action and should demonstrate appropriate conduct in the programs and in public during the duration of Humanity in Action programs.

This Code of Conduct describes Humanity in Action’s expectations for the behavior of its Network Members throughout their participation in the Fellowship programs and all other network activities. The envisioned purpose of this Code of Conduct is to promote a constructive learning environment for all Network Members, particularly our Fellows. Guest speakers, volunteers, freelancers and trainers will also be informed about our network’s Code of Conduct.

The Code of Conduct is not intended to be comprehensive or to address all possible applications of, or exceptions to, Humanity in Action’s expectations. Nor is it intended to in any way limit a Network Member’s rights to communicate with a government agency, as provided for, protected under, or warranted by applicable law. In addition, we understand that different terms mean different things in different contexts, languages and countries. If you have any questions, please ask for clarification.

RESPECT FOR OTHER NETWORK MEMBERS

All Network Members approach each other with respect. The themes presented during Humanity in Action programs are challenging, often contested, highly complex and potentially sensitive. Network Members are expected to approach and engage in discussions with respect, maturity, honesty, and an openness to explore their own perspectives and those of others in ways that are constructive for each individual and the group.

RESPECT FOR GUEST SPEAKERS AND TRAINERS

Network Members approach guest speakers and trainers with respect and with a desire to learn – even from guest speakers with whom they strongly disagree. Humanity in Action does not assume that Network Members will agree with all the viewpoints presented by all guest speakers. Humanity in Action encourages Network Members to communicate their disagreements in a respectful and constructive manner.
Network Members may attend sessions during the programs that are sensitive in subject matter, confidential, or off-the-record. They agree to follow the requests of guest speakers and the Staff regarding confidentiality, attribution, recording/photography and social media.

RESPECT FOR HOSTS AND ACCOMMODATIONS

Network Members comport themselves in places of accommodation – whether hotels, hostels, homestays or other locations – with respect and comply with any associated rules or standards of conduct. Non-Network Members cannot stay overnight in any Humanity in Action-sponsored accommodations without pre-approval from Staff and, where applicable, homestay hosts. If placed in homestays, Network Members should be sensitive to their hosts’ expectations and show openness and eagerness to get to know the hosts and their families.

ACTIVE PARTICIPATION, ATTENDANCE AND TIMELINESS

Network Members are expected to be active participants and to attend each scheduled session at the designated times. Should a Network Member need to arrive late, the Network Member should contact Staff in advance. Staff may excuse absences on a case-by-case basis.

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

Humanity in Action believes in the value of diversity and is committed to actively creating an environment where each Network Member feels empowered to learn, grow, and maximize their personal contribution. Celebrating the similarities and differences that shape each of us is important and will help spread our mission. We promote an inclusive atmosphere and ensure that our Network Members are always treated with dignity and respect.

NO DISCRIMINATION AND/OR HARASSMENT AND MAINTAINING CULTURAL SENSITIVITY

Humanity in Action is committed to providing an environment where people are free from any form of harassment, discrimination, abuse, and retaliation. Network Members are prohibited from harassing or discriminating against anyone on the basis of racial identifiers or race, color, sex, religion, ethnicity, national origin, ancestry, citizenship, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, pregnancy, marital/familial status, military or veteran status, genetic information, cultural, social, political, economic differences and/or any other characteristic protected by applicable national, state or local law.
As such, Network Members are expected to be cognizant of, and sensitive to, differences in both historical and contemporary contexts.

Network Members are also expected to recognize that some of the beliefs and behaviors could pertain to these different contexts. Although misunderstandings may occur, Network Members should always show respect and a willingness to understand and work through these differences both respectfully and constructively.

In addition, as noted above, sexual harassment will not be tolerated by Humanity in Action. For purposes of the Code of Conduct, sexual harassment includes harassment on the basis of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, and the status of being transgender. Sexual harassment is not accepted in Humanity in Action, whether it includes any unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal, physical or visual conduct of a sexual nature when any of the following occur:

- Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual’s employment or status in a program or activity;
- Submission to, or rejection of, such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for program decisions affecting that individual; or
- Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual’s participation in the network or of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive program environment even if the complaining individual is not the intended target of the sexual harassment.

A sexually harassing environment includes, but is not limited to, words, signs, jokes, pranks, intimidation or physical violence which are of a sexual nature or which are directed at an individual because of that individual’s sex. Sexual harassment may also consist of unwanted verbal or physical advances, sexually explicit derogatory statements or sexually discriminatory remarks. Sexual harassment can occur between any individuals, regardless of their sex or gender. A harasser can be any Network Member, guest speaker, trainers, volunteers, freelancers and/or other visitor.

NATIONAL AND LOCAL LAW

All Network Members must follow the laws governing the countries, states, municipalities, and cities where Humanity in Action activities take place and are susceptible to associated penalties for violations of those laws. If any matter is referred to the national authorities, it will be addressed in accordance with applicable law.
ADJUDICATION

If a potential violation of the Code of Conduct occurs, Humanity in Action asks Network Members to promptly inform a Program Director, Program Manager and/or Ombudsperson so Humanity in Action can promptly and thoroughly review and respond appropriately. When possible and appropriate, Humanity in Action will provide a warning of a breach of the Code of Conduct to Network Members and give them the opportunity to amend their behavior.

Humanity in Action will address issues on a case-by-case basis. Serious breaches of the Code of Conduct could lead Humanity in Action to dismiss immediately a Network Member from a program and/or the Network at the individual’s own expense.

AND: LAST BUT NOT LEAST: CREATING CONSTRUCTIVE DEBATE

We will be engaging in various debates and discussions throughout the fellowship, some of which might be more intensely debated than others. It is important that we focus on creating constructive conversation, with a focus on listening to others before responding. If you have any ideas for discussion topics during the fellowship, please contact one of the staff members and we will make sure it is included.

MEET OUR OMBUDSPERSON

ANNE KATRINE EBBESEN

2013 CPH Fellow, Communications, Danish Institute for Human Rights

Contact: akebbesen@gmail.com

As in society at large, also in Humanity in Action’s educational programs, and in other ventures of the Humanity in Action community, situations that are in violation of the organization’s code of conduct can arise. Humanity in Action is committed to providing an open, respectful, and safe environment for its Fellows, Senior Fellows, Program Interns, Staff, Board Members, speakers, partners, and others involved in its programs. Anne Katrine Ebbesen is our Ombudsperson, our designated point of contact to serve members of the Humanity in Action network, including the Fellows of this program, who experience abusive, racist, sexist, homophobic, or other forms of discriminatory behavior that emanate from other members of the network.

Senior Fellow (2013) and Lantos Congressional Fellow (2014), Anne Katrine Ebbesen (she/her) is the ombudsperson of Humanity in Action Denmark. With a BA and MA in Rhetoric from the University of Copenhagen, specializing in minority studies, nationalism and campaign analysis, she is also trained in conflict resolution and inter-religious dialogue from programs in Lebanon, Armenia and Denmark. Anne Katrine is currently a project consultant at the Danish Institute for Human Rights responsible for public events and political debates.
BEYOND THE PROGRAM
THE FELLOWSHIP JOURNEY

The Humanity in Action Fellowship may only last for a month, but an engagement in Humanity in Action lasts for much longer.

After the Fellowship part I and II - the virtual and in-person Fellowship - we will continue with part III, the Action Project Lab series in the fall/winter of 2022 and 2023. These workshops are created for you - to help you plan for your Action Project, and realize your visions for social change!

During and/or after the lab series it’s your time to develop your own personal Action Project!

The Humanity In Action Fellowship and your Action Project will be your entryway into a global network of people dedicated to promoting human rights, diversity and active citizenship around the world, and there are many ways to engage in this network. The fig. to the right shows each Fellow’s progression through Humanity in Action, starting with the Fellowship, the Action Project Lab series, the planning and execution of the Action Project, and the Senior Fellow opportunities available to you afterwards. See more about these opportunities on our website.

ACTION PROJECT DEADLINE: JUNE 23, 2023
ACTION PROJECTS
Turning knowledge into Action

As a Humanity in Action Fellow, you must plan and implement an Action Project - a hands-on initiative inspired by your Fellowship experience. Action Projects give you the opportunity to take what you have learned during the Fellowship programs and use that knowledge to address real-life issues in your own communities. The projects reflect each Fellow’s unique experience and interests. Action Projects may take many different forms, including community service, public advocacy, art projects, lectures, conferences, and social entrepreneurship. Below you can find examples of Action Projects carried out by Copenhagen Fellows.

CAROLINE LINDEY

Caroline Lindey (she/her) is a recent alumna of Boston University where she received a joint BA and MA degree in Political Science and graduated magna cum laude. Her master’s thesis explored the origins of anti-AAPI stereotypes and the development of a combat-related racialized threat perception through 100 years of U.S. military expeditions in the Pacific theater.

This fall Caroline will join the incoming political science PhD cohort at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. Her research agenda lies at the intersection of authoritarian regimes and political violence, including physical integrity violations such as torture, extrajudicial execution, mass detention, political imprisonment, forced disappearance, and genocide/politicide. Her regional focus is China and its policy of mass detention of Uyghur Muslims. Her research is influenced by previous internship experiences in transnational human rights activism in Washington, DC. In her free time, Caroline enjoys lifting weights and cooking for friends.

COLIN TREDWAY

Colin Tredway (he/him) was raised in a small town in rural North Georgia, and attended the University of North Georgia, graduating with a degree in history and a double minor in German language and anthropology. He has had a special interest in how wealth inequality, poverty, and lack of opportunity, affect the lives of different peoples. He focuses on his home region of Appalachia and the effects these issues have on those residing in this region. Colin is hoping to continue his studies and obtain a masters degree in political science or international relations so that he may work in Dagmar Büchert (she/her) is a native of Copenhagen. She is currently taking her BA degree in Art History at University of Copenhagen, while working at Parkmuseerne. She holds an AP degree in Multimedia Design from Copenhagen School of Design and Technology and volunteered at the gallery Kunstforeningen Gl. Strand for two years, to nourish her interest in art history and visual culture. Moreover, she recognizes how hybrid and interdisciplinary artworks can foster new narratives upon societal issues, which she believes is a vital feature in a globalized art world. Dagmar has an interest in human rights issues, disability issues, intersectional feminism and conflict resolutions, which has made her spend time in Poland with the non-profit organization Crossing Borders and the student organization Foreningen Afsæt. In her freetime she enjoys home-cooking, spending time at the countryside and hanging out with friends.

Dimitra Paraskevi Lazaridou (she/her) is from Greece and is currently living in Copenhagen. She has recently graduated from the MSc in "Development and International Relations" following the specialization "Global Refugee Studies". Her Bachelor is in Psychology and she is mainly interested in refugee studies, equality awareness and human rights. Dimitra has been working for non-governmental organizations supporting people diagnosed with mental health problems as well as for organizations who help people on the move both in Greece and Copenhagen. She is now volunteering on the climate justice field and offers social work at the Danish YMCA’s organization called Social Arbejde, which helps vulnerable people in Denmark.

Gabby Santas (she/her) is a graduate of Brown University, where she concentrated in socio-cultural anthropology. Her senior capstone project, exploring contemporary efforts to "decolonize" museums, won the Watson Smith prize for best departmental paper, and is published in the Theory and Practice journal for emerging museum professionals. Since graduating, Gabby has worked as a field organizer, a middle school teacher, and an intern with the Smithsonian Institution’s Center for Restorative History. In her current role as a research assistant with the California Migration Museum, she works to bring together stories not only of arrival and welcome but also exclusion, displacement, and resistance, exploring how California was—and continues to be—from profoundly shaped by migration. She is passionate about public history and hopes to continue learning how cultural institutions can leverage community-based knowledge and innovative storytelling to support ongoing movements for justice.

HANA HALIBEGOVIĆ

Hana Halibegović (she/her) is a final year student currently finishing her Bachelor’s in Financial Management at The School of Business and Economics in Sarajevo. In addition to the financial and marketing management, her field of interest also includes democracy, sustainable development and Western Balkan’s collective leadership on reconciliation. Apart from striving to make contributions to peacebuilding initiatives in the Western Balkan region Hana is working on the Maker incentive in BiH that aims to create an environment that encourages education, research and development, innovation and youth entrepreneurship in her country. During her studies, she volunteered in local organizations working on different projects ranging from civic action projects concerning issues of youth development and youth policies to innovation and entrepreneurship programs. She hopes to contribute to the society in the future, since she believes that forward-thinking and innovative approach is the key to success.

IDO NAHARI

Ido Nahari (he/him) is a sociologist, researcher and writer who works as an assistant editor for Arts of the Working Class, a street newspaper covering art, poverty, wealth and precarity. Interested in the fields of cultural revivalism, social welfare and the commodification of emotions, Nahari holds a Master of Science in Culture and Society from the London School of Economics and Political Science, where he received a mark of distinction for his investigation of the marketability of authenticity. His work has been featured widely in publications such as Spike Art Magazine, Die Tageszeitung, Analyse und Kritik, Ha’aretz and the New York Public Seminar.

JADEN EVANS

Jaden Evans (he/him) is a rising fourth-year Jefferson Scholar at the University of Virginia, where he is double majoring in Media Studies and Foreign Affairs. His academic interests revolve around media theory, political philosophy, and the politics of supranational organizations. Currently, Jaden is particularly interested in the formative effects of digital media on democratic behavior, especially within the comparative international context. At the Miller Center for Public Affairs, he is also working with the Project on Democracy and Capitalism to develop an interactive database through which students, teachers, and faculty can access, analyze, and compare hundreds of datasets pertaining to the core elements of democracy and capitalism. Jaden is an outdoor enthusiast and enjoys using running to build community in new places.

JOYA KUMAR

Born in New Jersey and raised in New Delhi, India, Joya Kumar (she/her) is a rising senior at Columbia University majoring in history with a particular interest in early-modern Jewish history. She also studies music and enjoys composing. Since high school, Joya has been involved in various types of social work, from engaging visually-impaired children in sensory activities to helping low-income, high-achieving high school students with their college applications. In her free time, Joya loves to sing and is the musical director of Columbia’s premier cappella group, the Columbia Clefhangers.

JULIUS JENSEN

Julius Jensen (he/him) is born and raised in Northern Jutland. Current city of residence is Copenhagen which he moved to in 2021. This with the goal of being situated in an international environment and unlocking new opportunities. Julius is currently enrolled at Roskilde University where he is studying Social Studies and Communication. Feeling an urge to help people in need, Julius has previously volunteered and engaged in the work of...
Action Aid in Kenya. The desire to help those in need is also reflected in his work at a hospital, where he as an orderly took part in patient care. Julius has a special interest in examining the inequality embedded in society, and he finds that film and media is a great outlet to communicate matters of meaning and importance. Therefore, he wishes to engage further in media related work with the goal of giving a mouthpiece to subjects that need attention.

Katja Madsen (she/her) is a feminist activist and intercultural facilitator. She currently lives in a commune on the Danish countryside but has previously studied in Ghana and Tanzania. Through her work at Danida Fellowship Centre she has been lucky to meet bright heads from all over the world, create community and build bridges across cultures. Holding an MA in African Studies, Katja is a critical thinker seeking to challenge stereotypical images and misrepresentations. Her thesis problematised sensationalistic depictions of female genital cutting and revealed a deeply dynamic and politicised practice intersecting with structural violence. As feminist nerd, she is always on the lookout for how patriarchy, capitalism and colonialism interfere with people’s rights. She is curious about the felt and embodied aspects of oppression and art as a platform of healing.

Liudmyla Lesiv (she/her) was born in Ternopil, Ukraine, and is currently a second-year student studying Philosophy. Having a keen interest in ethics and stoicism. Her passion for human rights and her open-minded is also expressed through her working at organisations helping local communities in eastern Ukraine to fill their cities with an atmosphere of unity, support and a sense of national spirit. She holds a Masters in International Affairs from the Hertie School in Berlin and previously studied at Hampshire College in Amherst, Massachusetts, and Sciences Po Paris. While she was born and raised in Munich, Germany, and part of her family is from Kumasi, Ghana, Lisa spent ten years studying and working in the United States. After earning her BA in Cultural Studies and International Relations, she worked on progressive public policy issues in Washington, DC, focusing on migration and criminal justice reform – most recently as a Policy Associate for the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers (NACDL). Passionate about ensuring access to justice for marginalized communities, she is also engaged in anti-discrimination and racial justice activism. Her fields of interest include social movements, migration, human rights and intersectional advocacy. Lisa is a Humanity in Action Fellow (2020 Berlin Fellowship).

MADDDIE MELTON
Program Manager, Humanity in Action US

Maddie Melton (they/them) is the Program Manager for Humanity in Action’s Mapping Inequities Fellowship. In addition to this work, they are a Master’s student in the Environmental Humanities at the University of Utah. Their work focuses on the environment as actant in the politics of immigration along the US/Mexico border through an ethnographic lens. This research was motivated by several years of work in outdoor & experiential education with Where There Be Dragons in Southwest China and the Southwest United States that asked questions of place, identity, water, social & environmental justice, and sovereignty of all kinds. They hold a BA from Rhodes University and a BA Honours in Anthropology from the University of Cape Town, both in South Africa. Outside of work and study, Maddie has hiked more than 4000 miles on long-distance trails. and they are a passionate scuba diver. They also dabble in creative non-fiction that considers the relationship between outdoor recreation, identity, and issues of social and environmental concern.

MEITAL ROZENTAL
Program Manager, Humanity in Action

Meital Rozental (she/her) holds a Bachelor’s degree in Communications and Psychology from the Hebrew University in Jerusalem and a Master’s degree in Socio-Cultural Studies with focus on Migration and Ethnicity from the Europa Universität Viadrina. During her studies she was a Fellow of the Ernst Ludwig Ehrlich Foundation for gifted Jewish students and completed internships at the Cinema for Peace Foundation and the Berlin Film Festival. Coming from a Jewish-Hungarian family who has known its share of persecution and discrimination, growing up in the Middle East and becoming a migrant herself, Meital has a keen interest in questions related to societal participation, human and civil rights and the role of culture in shaping inclusive and just societies based on human dignity and compassion. She is particularly interested in cinema as a means of making socio-political issues accessible for large audiences via emotional and aesthetic storytelling.

NINA AXELSEN
Program Coordinator, Humanity in Action Denmark

Nina Axelsen (she/her) is studying a MSc in Global Studies at Lund University. She holds a BA in International Business and Politics from Copenhagen Business School focusing on post colonial theory. Besides working at HIA, Nina is currently interning at a small NGO working for gender equality.

PAULINE SPRANG
2019 Berlin Fellowship Program Director, Humanity in Action Germany

Pauline Sprang (they/them) is this year’s Humanity in Action Germany’s Program Director for the European Fellowship. They move in the interstices of academia, facilitation, and political organising, thereby holding the importance of intimate, body centred transformation as key to healing and justice. Holding a MA in Gender Studies from SOAS University of London, they are inspired by queer theories of utopianism and radical political imagination. Such a critical yet imagination. Such a critical yet hopeful spirit also informed their dissertation on the political potentials of pleasure for queer world making. Queering Sex-Ed is a transnational platform they co-founded to not only make such theory more accessible, but to democratise and decolonise the ways in which knowledge about intimacies and identities is being produced and transmitted. While enjoying to work analytically, they also love to bring theory into the realm of the everyday life with playfulness, care, and the whole body. Whether in their research, workshops, or in their own community, they are dedicated to the imagination and cultivation of better modes of relating to one another to enhance everyones’ wellbeing and to bring about social and political change.

#HIAfellow | 63 | Humanity in Action
Today we investigate the Atlantic histories and concepts of colonialism and enslavement with June Thalin Worm Gibba, 2019 John Lewis Fellow. Then Caribbean-born La Vaugn Belle takes us into her artistic universe where she “makes visible the unremembered.” Belle explores the material culture of colonialism, borrowing from elements of architecture, history and archeology to create narratives that challenge colonial hierarchies and invisibility. In the last session of the day, we explore the concepts of sovereignty and indigenous nations of the US and the Arctic. Law Professor Rachael Lorna Johnstone guides us through the creation of Indigenous Peoples in International Law and Senior Fellow DeLesslin ‘Roo’ George-Warren explores legacies of settler-colonialism in the US and considers contemporary struggles for cultural and political autonomy among Native Americans.

Today we focus on an interconnected themes of wars, war crimes, traumas and resistance. We screen “My Father’s War” – a short animation film produced by Humanity in Action. The film foregrounds the lived experiences of Holocaust survivors and evokes wide-ranging reflections. Then we have a unique opportunity to discuss and deepen the topic of how trauma is being passed on with David Hein, one of the film protagonists, as well as Jasmin Hasic, who provides the context of the war in Bosnia in the mid-1990s. Both David and Jasmin are Humanity in Action Senior Fellows. These sessions are followed by a journaling exercise for individual reflection. We end the day by exchanging insights in small international groups on how history impacts our lives today. Today’s topic is linked with the session with Konstanty Gerbert on June 13, 2022 in which we investigate the impact of the Russian invasion on Ukraine through a human rights perspective.

#HIAfellow | 65 | Humanity in Action
ARRIVAL AND WELCOME

A great and warm welcome to Copenhagen. Today you will all fly in or arrive by train, bus etc. from different locations around the world and around the country. We will host an informal welcome reception at Humanity in Action’s offices in Copenhagen to greet you all. This will also be an opportunity to meet with your host families.

LOCATION: Droningensgade 14, 1420 København

AGENDA

19.00-21.00 Welcome Reception
INTRODUCTION TO THE PROGRAM AND OUR THEME

Let the program begin! We will kickstart the Fellowship with an introduction of you, your expectations and a run through of the program by our national director. Chair of the Danish Board, Morten Svendstorp, will welcome you all and introduce Humanity in Action and our activities. Senior Fellow, Host “mom” and former board member Sørine Rasmussen, will tell you about do’s and don’ts while staying with a host family. Finally, Martin Breum, journalist, Arctic expert and member of our board of Representatives, will give the Opening Lecture of the Copenhagen Fellowship.

YOUTH ISLAND DAY 2

Today you will truly be interdisciplinary. We will get around, the Danish Welfare State and Denmark as a multicultural country, intercultural dialogue and the war in Ukraine, when we rejoin the other cohorts virtually for a talk by renowned Polish journalist Konstanty Gebert.

We will end this packed day with an optional movie night - or time around the bonfire...

ACTION PROJECTS

Action Projects! The center of it all. Once we finish our on site Fellowship, you should be well equipped to begin working on your action project. Inspired by our many speakers as well as by Catalina Catana, who will provide you with concrete tools as to how to go about your projects. Today we will have the first of three workshops with Catalina, where she will help you get off to a good start. In the afternoon we will pack-up and sail back to Copenhagen so you can enjoy a relaxing afternoon before a busy day on Wednesday.

We will dive down into Human Rights today. Beginning by exploring challenges and prospects for Human Rights from a Danish and European perspective. Secondly, we will broaden our perspective and get insights into Human Rights in development work.

Today is also the day where we will visit the Great Synagogue of Copenhagen and host our first event open to the public. We will start with a screening of Humanity in Action’s animated short film “Voices in the Void”, followed by a talk with one of the few remaining Holocaust survivors; Ole Philipson, who escaped Nazi persuasion as a young boy by fleeing to Sweden in October 1943.

Today we will continue our discussion about Human Rights issues in the Faroe Islands. Ass. Professor Heini í Skorini will enlighten us on religion, politics and minorities in the Faroe Islands. Heini’s lecture will be the last solely looking at Faroe Islands before we next week turn our focus towards Greenland.

Today also marks the end of our first 8 days together, and we have therefore invited Mette back to evaluate the group norms we set out with on day 2.

In the afternoon Sally Madsen Bjerre from Rapolitics will join us to tell us more about our participation as volunteers in the Roskilde Festival. And then: a well deserved weekend!
After a nice and (hopefully) relaxing weekend we will start off the week by revisiting action projects. Catalina will join us again to bring you further in your work on your individual projects.

After lunch we will go to Nordatlantens Brygge (The North Atlantic House) to visit Jens Heinrich, Head of the Greenlandic Representation. Jens will kick-off the second leg of our theme and give us an introduction to Greenland’s history as well as Greenland’s and Denmark’s shared history.

ACTIVISM AND MENTAL HEALTH & SENIOR FELLOW ACTION DAY

At this point we have been around many aspects of our theme. With a bag full of new knowledge we will dedicate this day to exploring how to best get around working with you interests and passions. Activism has a long history, and at the Workers’ Museum in Copenhagen we will learn more about on whos shoulders we stand when working with Human Rights issues. In the afternoon we will discuss how to avoid burnout when working in activism and how to take care of yourself whilst still being passionate about social justice.

We will end the day with our Senior Fellow Action Day! Kicking off the weekend by expanding your network and mingling with Senior Fellows.

14.00-17.00 Podcast Production #4: Working on your podcasts
We will meet early morning at Copenhagen Central Station to go to Roskilde Festival together by train. It takes approximately one hour to go to the festival.

Rapolitics have arranged a series of events, where one will relate to Greenland, Inuit Rights, art and activism. We have been invited to help out as volunteers for the day. We will help with practicalities relating to the events and mobilise participants for the events. And of course experience the very special atmosphere of Northern Europe’s largest and oldest festival!

Know that Roskilde Festival is quite easy to access by public transportation, so you can easily get home if you feel like calling it an early day. Or stay and take part in all the fun.

Please note! It is your own responsibility to get back to Copenhagen. Trains run until 4 am.
