

Applications for the 2024 Humanity in Action Fellowships are now open for applicants from or based in Germany!

The Humanity in Action Fellowship brings together international groups of university students and recent graduates to explore compelling, current issues of democracy, pluralism, human rights, and social justice within the specific historical and cultural contexts of each of the program offices. Intensive and demanding, the programs are an educational space for international dialogue, reflection and informed action. The Action Projects that Fellows implement in the second phase of their Fellowship experience promote democratic values and social justice in their own communities.

We invite applications from apprentices, students, and recent graduates who are passionate about advancing human rights, pluralism, and civic engagement. Fellows come from many different backgrounds—academia, the arts, activism—but share common values. Humanity in Action Fellows are collaborative, passionate and empathic people, willing to examine and challenge their personal preconceptions and biases.
